Manager, buses asked

Northgate Transit Companay of Daly City must make improvements on equipment, maintenance and management or discontinue their operations within six months, the staff of California Public Utilities Commission recommended last Wednesday in a hearing at City Hall, Daly City.

The report was prepared as part of a hearing on a proposed five cent increase in fares by Northgate Transit.

Staff members said if the Transit Company complies with the recommendations for improvements they should be eligible for the fare increase. The Utilities Commission will make a final decision on the fares.

Northgate Transit operates passenger service within the City of Daly City and between Daly City and the unincorporated area of Broadmoor as well as portions of the City of San Francisco; over the routes designated as : Westlake-St. Francis Heights; Broadmoor, Palisades, and Stonestown.

The Public Utilities Commission have received a number of complaints about the service from passengers as well as city officials. The complaints usually concern the failure of the buses to maintain their schedules.

The report stated: "Investigation has disclosed that the difficulties arose from mechanical breakdowns that were attributable to the use of old, wornout or improperly maintained equipment.

Complaints were also received concerning discourteous attitudes by some of the drivers.

Northgate Transit vehicles were recently inspected by members of the Commission's staff, (September 3) and the California Highway Patrol, (October 10) and in several instances operators were ordered to correct deviations from various safety rules and standards.

The report stated that extensive checks made by Commission staff members on July 29 and 30 and on August 14 and 15 indicated one of the difficulties was caused by improper route scheduling.

With this in mind the Commission's staff recommended that weekday service on the Broadmoor Route be reduced from a 20-minute to 30-minute intervals and on the Palisades route from 20 to 40 minute intervals during peak hours, and from 30 minutes to 60 minutes during the mid-day period.

These service reductions were placed into effect about October 1 this year, resulting in the saving of two buses and an annual reduction of approximately 91,500 bus miles.

The commission said the service as presently operated by Northgate Transit, leaves much to be desired from the standpoint of dependability, suitability of equipment and public relations.

"It appears that a fare increase will not answer the needs of either the drivers or the traveling public unless positive steps are taken to correct these deficiencies."

The commission suggested the company publish public timetables that show all trips operated on each route indicating the scheduled departure times at the inner and outer terminals.

It is suggested that the Commission, in order to authorize increased fares, require that the company, within six months:

1. Appoint a general manager who will have responsibility for the entire operation and the authority to discipline, or withdraw the driving privileges of those drivers who do not attempt to maintain their schedules, or do not render courteous service; or who do

Rafferty Speaks

'Bussing won't solve segregation'

Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction, said here Friday he does not think transporting youngsters out of their neighborhoods to other schools will solve "de facto segregation."

"I don't think we are going to solve this problem by buying a few school buses," Rafferty told an audience of some 300 parents, teachers and guests of the Pacific Heights PTA.

"We cannot solve this by creating an artificial ethnic balance," he went on.

"We cannot desegregate schools in segregated neighborhoods."

"We can only solve the problem when we desegregate districts (neighborhoods)," Rafferty stated.

Segregated schools

Rafferty told his audience some schools in California are completely segregated.

"This is not the schools' fault," he said.

The vast negro immigration to California and the forcing of the negro population into "ghettos" has brought about these segregated situations, he explained.

The schools had no control over this, he said.

Sound and Sensible

The solution to "de facto segregation," said Rafferty, "must be educationally sound and make educational sense."

Neighborhood Schools

"I believe in and stress neighborhood schools," he stated.

Rafferty suggested two reasons for his belief:

A neighborhood school creates close contact between teacher and parent.

And, bussing breaks up neighborhood relationships which are healthy to a youngster's emotional development, he explained.

Political Interference

Rafferty told the PTA group he believes there is too much political and partisan interference with education in the state.

"The interference is barefaced and cynical in order to appoint political hacks," said Republican Rafferty.

"Education is not a ground for partisan politics; but it is becoming a political football," he said.

Bills on education should be considered on educational

Bocci says Verducci No. 1 rival

Attorney Tom Bocci, reaffirmed his intentions this week of running for a seat in the Fifth supervisorial district next year against Joseph Verducci and Pete Markovitch of Daly City and Mrs. Jean Fassler of Pacifica.

Bocci, a former north county municipal judge and counsel for the Bayshore Citizens Committee, which fought the recent Brisbane annexations said "I intend to put on a strong campaign."

Bocci said he has not had enough time as of late to devote himself to the campaign, but he added that "I'm in the race and expect a good campaign out of it."

Bocci said he anticipates some real opposition from Joseph Verducci, the present mayor of Daly City, and "no one else."

The county seat is now held by Alvin Hatch of Half Moon Bay.

With the redistricting of the county, Daly City, South San Francisco, Pacifica and the coastside area have been made into a new Fifth district, and Hatch, formerly representing the Fourth district now holds the seat which may be contested in 1964.

Ryan urges

State board study

"I feel that there should be greater state legislative control over the Department of Public Instruction," Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan said Monday in an interview with staff members of the Westlake Times and The Record.

"By this I mean that I feel that the legislature should investigate the relationship between the three levels of administration, state, county and local," he continued. "If there is duplication of effort, and I believe there must be, the department should be reorganized, so that the greatest effort is put at the point where it belongs—the teacher with her 25 to 30 pupils."

While there are many dedicated and hard-working people in the state department of public instruction, "we should eliminate those people who are merely passing papers from one basket to another. Of course, elimination of any bureau is nearly next to impossible," he pointed out.

But said that he would be interested in heading up a special committee to make a thorough study of the education boards "from top to bottom."

"When we get right down to it, the most important factor in our whole school system is the teacher and her students, and any money spent that does not make this job better is wasted money," he continued.

Ryan said he felt that the state department of public Instruction would be more effective if the board members were elected and then they appointed the state superintendent.

MULTIPLE GRIEF—Alvin A. Lopez, 21, of 136 Bruno avenue, Daly City, holds his head in hands in police car after his car struck Miss Rosemary Muldoon, 43, 2533-A Irvington street in a crosswalk at San Jose and Crocker avenue in Daly City. Ambulance drivers and firemen are shown administering first aid. The woman suffered a fractured ankle and cuts and bruises. She was reported in fair condition at San Fracisco General Hospital. Lopez was cited for violation of pedestrian right of way.

Drop-out problem called 'dynamite'

"When I'm Old Enough—Good-bye!", a movie on high school dropouts, was presented Saturday at Westmoor High for the second annual North Peninsula League Conference by C. Z. Brown of the Department of Labor.

Brown predicted "social dynamite" coming soon, and cited as evidence the facts that one out of every three high school students today is dropping out and that, out of every ten grade school pupils, only four go on to college and only two graduate.

Proposing solutions to the problem of youth who are "last to be hired, first to be fired," Brown suggested that schools review their curriculum in an attemp to alleviate the "narrow bottleneck of all academics." He also described the work of the Youth Conservation Program in trying to place these young members of the labor force in suitable jobs.

Leo J. Ryan, a former high school teacher and now legislator for North San Mateo County, impressed upon his audience that, as the leaders of tomorrow, they have an obligation to further educate themselves in order to better serve their community. He recommended that they get themselves into politics and make it their business to erase the poor reputation established by some politicians.

Ryan cited as examples the many politicians in Sacramento today who have never had a high school education. Reminding the group that one can never tell what is in the future, Ryan concluded that the difference between his generation and ours is, "You can't afford to make mistakes."

Apartment zoning ok'd over protest

A petition to rezone property south of Brunswick street in Daly City between Wellington avenue and Hillside boulevard from commercial to residential in order to erect apartments, was passed over the protest of 11 petitioners last Tuesday at the Daly City Planning commission regular meeting in city hall.

The petition was filed by E. T. Komsthoeft, 727 Industrial Road, San Carlos.

Charles Garry, 482 Wellington avenue, presented a petition in opposition to the zoning signed by 11 residents in the immediate area who feel this property and all adjacent property should be zoned R-1.

Mrs. Patricia Damato, 151 East Vista, opposed the rezoning due to the fact that each apartment building would have more school age children than an R-1 single-family dwelling. She said schools in this area are already overpopulated.

Commissioner Richard Dwyer pointed out that a survey by the school district has revealed fewer children in apartments than in single-family residences.

City engineer William Chapman pointed out that this property could be used for apartments as well as single family residences and commercial uses as it is presently zoned.

Marine Corps tells problem of drop-outs

The problem of high school drop-outs has brought out this week by Sgt. Berten D. DeWayne, non-commissioned officer in charge of Marine recruiting, 6705 Mission street, Daly City.

Of the approximate 40 Marine sign-ups each year at the Daly City recruiting station, some one-third of these men are high school drop outs.

Sgt. DeWayne stressed the drop-out's chances of qualifying for a technical school are small.

The following is a letter in part from Marine Corps Commandant David M. Shoup:

"It is true that the Marine Corps needs young men, but not just any young men. The Marine Corps especially needs young men who have the educational background and ability to assume the responsibilities required of the modern Marine.

"We need intelligent high school graduates and college-trained men who have the capacity and initiative to master the increasingly complex skills of the missile-age Marine Corps."

Directory publication is delayed

The new Daly City-Colma business directory, scheduled for publication this month, has been delayed for an indefinite time, according to Ramona Birke, Daly City Hostess.

The material for the directory has been completed and sent to the publishers some weeks ago. However, the current strike by the Typographical Union is slowing up production on the booklet.

Distribution of the directory, the first in four years, will be made as soon as possible, said Miss Birke.

No library cards

Trailer dwellers protest

A protest was made last Wednesday at a meeting of the Daly City Library Commission by citizens living in Daly City trailer courts who have been denied a library card on the basis they have "no permanent address" and are transients.

Some 12 citizens of Daly City, headed by Mrs. Harriet Taylor, 7880 Mission street, Meadowbrook Trailer Court, protested they are more permanent dwellers than Daly City apartment dwellers.

The commission agreed to study the matter and held action until the Dec. 11 meeting, at which time Librarian Samuel Chandler will present a report on what's done in other areas regarding library cards to trailer dwellers.

In other action the Commission granted permission for Chandler to join in application with other libraries for a planning grant for libraries. The idea is to join with other libraries to hire a planner to study library needs.

Planning areas may include the problem of library service to areas far away from the central city.

This would involve planning of how to serve these areas, through bookmobile, or cooperative library use among cities.

Ryan hits segregated housing

North County Assemblyman Leo Ryan Monday said he is "anxious to see undesirable housing practices break down in California."

Through segregated housing, he said, we pay for it through "human lives and misery."

"As long as ghettos exist, we pay millions."

"It's a luxury we can't afford."

Ryan said he thought San Mateo County is developing the right way with its launching of a Human Rights Committee.

In this way, he said, some of the issues can be talked out.

Ryan said most responsible leaders in San Mateo County on going on the proposition to break down segregation policies.

In other words, said Ryan, a man who qualifies for a job should be hired, regardless of his color or skin.

"When you say 'equal justice for all you don't mean some," Ryan said.

Ryan, a veteran of his first year at the assembly, said he is impressed by the political atmosphere in Sacramento.

"I think state politics are so clean it squeaks," he said.

Ryan said he supported the idea of curbing repititious legislation, through means of a possible State Constitution revision.

Husband shot by wife

Howard M. Jones, 54, of 343 Miriam street, Daly City, was reported in good condition this week as the result of a gunshot wound inflicted by his wife after a marital dispute.

Police reported Jones said his wife, Ruth, 49, had fired a .38 caliber revolver through her bedroom door. He was standing on the opposite side. The shot struck him in the left shoulder.

'Count your blessings' says SF Chamber head

By Jack Wood

"Counting a few of our blessings in this region" was the topic of a speech delivered at the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce annual dinner at the Olympic Club.

The speaker was G. L. Fox, executive vice president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

Fox listed for the audience of some 150 men and women the major reasons why so many people come to California and the Bay Area and make their home.

For one reason, the climate is better all year round than in the East. "We take for granted our climate," he said.

Bayshore re-zoning approved

The Daly City Planning Commission last week passed a resolution approving the proposed plan of zoning for Bayshore, including the commercial zoning on the southeast corner of MacDonald avenue and Schwerin streets and the industrial zoning south of the PG&E building with adjacent multiple family buffer zone along Schwerin street.

City engineer William Chapman pointed out that when an area is annexed to the city it comes in without any zoning classification. He said the zoning is similar to what it was under county jurisdiction, with the following exceptions:

(A) Former area south of the Cow Palace to multiple R-3 dwellings.

(b) Former H-1 (highway Commercial) adjacent to San Francisco city-county line and west of Carter street to C-1 (neighborhood commercial).

(c) Former (Parking District) between Cow Palace and Carter street adjacent to city-county line to C-2.

(d) Former C-2 (heavy commercial) between Pueblo and Calgary streets north of Geneva changed to C-1.

(e) Former H-1 on corner of MacDonald and Schwerin to R-1.

(f) Former C-2 west of Bayshore and north of Geneva avenue to C-1.

(g) Industrial zoning for all of PG&E's property.

Serramonte grading contract up for bid

Carl Gellert, president of Suburban Realty Co., has announced the availability, on November 20th, of the plans and specifications on the first phase of grading in the 950 acres of land formerly known as the Christen Ranch, to be developed by Suburban Realty, in Daly City.

The planned community of homes, apartments and shopping-center complex is to be known as Serramonte, and will be developed at a cost of approximately $200,000,000. Total grading in the development will ultimately involve the moving of some 30 milion yards of earth, making Serramonte one of the largest subdivision grading jobs undertaken in Northern California.

Plans and specification available for bidding at this time cover the initial moving of six million yards of earth. Interested contractors can acquire copies of the plans and specifications at the offices of E. V. Schulhauser and Associates, Inc., civil engineers for the project, at 2222 Nineteenth avenue, on or after November 20th. Bids submitted will be formally opened at 2 p.m., on December 5th, at the offices of the engineers.

Police crack 60 burglaries

Daly City police claimed to have broken up a two-and-a-half year burglary spree in Broadmoor and Pacifica.

Some 60 homes were involved in the break-ins, police said.

Two youths were arrested and two others have been named and were questioned.

Police said the boys stole mostly cash. One of the youths turned over a transistor radio and $290, police said.

Parents of the two boys learned of their son's extra-curricular activities last summer during vacation and the boys were reprimanded and the stolen property returned.

Two Daly City boys, ages 14 and 15 are charged with burglary. Other youths investigated e 15 and 17. One lives in Daly City, the other, Broad-

Police said the boys would ring doorbells and if there was no answer, they would get in through unlocked windows and doors.

T/sgt. L. Janssen on operation Big Lift

Technical Sergeant Llewellyn W. Janssen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin T. Janssen of 1707 Louvaine Drive, Colma, Calif., is participating in Exercise Big Lift in Europe, the joint Department of Defense demonstration of U.S. capability for rapid massive reinforcement of NATO forces.

The sergeant, a graduate of George Washington High School, San Francisco, Calif., entered the service in February 1948. His wife, Jeannine, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brown of 1300 Rencher St., Clovis. N.M.

Blessings

"All the people in this region are gainfully employed in things they like to do."

Many cultural advantages, including the opera, ballet, are available.

Recreational opportunities, sea fishing, skiing, are available. "There are few regions in which people can enjoy such diversity."

Fox said some of the problems, such as race relations, will become lesser with greater understanding. Traffic, will soon be better with more and better roads. Housing is better now than 10 years ago. We have a surplus of water supply in California and enough to take care of the needs of other areas.

Fox said the Bay Region is now comprised of 13 counties and is the fastest growing region in the U.S. The 13 counties have a population of five million constituting in population the 10th or 11th largest state.

The reason the area can absorb so many people, he said, is because San Francisco is an industrial and agricultural center.

Company headquarters for the California timber stands, one of the largest in the nation, is in San Francisco.

San Francisco is the headquarters for a significant fisheries industry.

"No area in the nation has such diversification of industry."

San Francisco is also, he said, the wholesaling and jobbing area for the entire west.

Within 40 miles there are 600 research labs, for foods, radiation and hundreds of other products.

Boy born to L. Alonsos

A 7-lb. boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. Alonso on Saturday, November 10 at Woodland Memorial Hospital. He has been named Thomas Leoncio Alonso. The Alonsos reside at 12 Mateo Ave., Daly City. Mr. Alonso is the manager of the Daly City Sprouse Reitz Variety Store.

Bussing

merit, not on political advantage, declared the superintendent.

Dropouts

Rafferty indirectly blamed large early grade classes for high school drop-outs.

The drop-out problem starts in the first grades with its big classes and poor readers and ends in high school, he said.

"If we can teach them to read in the first grade, we can save them from being high school drop outs later.

Rafferty said that big classes of 40 to 4 first graders gave teachers little time for individual pupil help, especially in reading.

"We need more classrooms and more teachers to solve this problem," he said.

Trends

Rafferty listed a number of "good" and "bad" trends which are taking place in his administration and in California's educational system.

Among the "good" trends were:

A swing away from traditional methods of permissive and pragmatic teaching to "education in depth."

Rafferty said education in depth meant history as history and geography as geography.

Multiple choices of textbooks in each school district.

A choice of text books, said the superintendent, means books for slow, average and gifted pupils instead of only one for all three.

Teachers who have been educated primarily in the subjects they are going to teach.

Teachers before have been hired with an "education" major and with less emphasis on English, history, math, social sciences, etc.

Foreign languages taught in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

If the schools could do it, Rafferty explained, foreign languages would start with the third grade.

To start languages earlier than the sixth grade means an additional (approximately) 3,000 teachers each for the third, fourth and fifth grades.

Rafferty also listed a trend of new schools for less money and greater public interest in education with people being "knowledgeable and concerned."

Negative

The state superintendent listed as "bad" the gradual withdrawal of state financial support of schools.

Schools are now supported by only 35 percent of state money, he said.

Rafferty wants to see this changed.

He said a broader state tax base should be used with more state tax money going into echools.

With the withdrawal of support, said the superintendent, greater state control over schools has been exerted especially in state colleges.

"There has been an increasing trend by the state to stick its nose into the affairs of local school boards," Rafferty said.

The state does have an interest in schools, he noted; but, grass roots control of local schools produces the best schools, he said.

"My office will do everything possible to return schools to grass roots control," he concluded.

Alexander Graham Bell developed hydrofoil speedboats in 1917, some of them capable of more than 70 miles an hour.

Big welcome for Bayshore

"You are part of Daly City and you have to evaluate yourself as part of Daly City."

Some 150 residents, guests and city and county officials last Wednesday heard Superior Court Judge Frank Blum welcome Bayshore district residents into Daly City with these words.

The occasion was the Host-Bayshore banquet at the Friar Room of the Serra Bowl, sponsored by the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce.

The appearance of distinguished guests ,including the county manager, and board of supervisors, two judges and many other officials, caused the city manager Edward Frank to comment:

"You see what I mean. Daly City has come of age. They recognize us as a big and important city."

Judge Blub asked the Bayshore district residents to come to the city council with their problems.

"Tell the council what you need, what you want and you stand a pretty good chance of getting it."

He cautioned about avoiding becoming emotional, and asking for too much. "You can't have playgrounds in your backyard."

He said "the city council will do a good job for you providing you give them information on what you need, what you want."

Judge Blum said the people of Bayshore should be proud of the new city they live in.

"We welcome you," he said 'We hope you are one of us."

not comply with the rules and regulations.

2. Upgrade the equipment so that all buses used are satisfactory as to mechanical safety, general appearance and suitability, for headway and aisle room. The commission recommended several buses be replaced.

3. Institute a vehicle maintenance system that will be rigidly adhered to.

It was also recommended that the company be required to keep accurate records of revenues.

The company is asking for a five cent fare increase to meet operating expenses, which company president Charles D. Lucas said have increased 100 per cent within the past few years. Northgate has been operating service over its present routes at the same fare for approximately eight years.

The company, as actually operated, is an association of owner-operators who are self-operated. There are approximately 10 drivers.

The company maintains an office and drivers' room at 6019 Mission street, but there is no employee regularly stationed at this location.

The report stated there is no one in the organization who functions in a managerial capacity on a full-time basis or who can be held responsible for the overall operation.

Present and proposed fares are as follows:

Knock JUHSDTA policy

A basic policy on employees' organizations within the Jefferson Union High School District was read to board members last week.

The policy met with objections.

The policy was drawn, according to its authors, the Jefferson Union High School District Teacher's Ass'n., as a means of legally recognizing such organizations by the superintendent of schools and the board.

Clarance Lair, president of the Jefferson Union High School District Teachers' Association, explained that the proposed policy is simply "to provide for recognition and representation of teachers' groups having business with the superintendent or the school board."

The policy has met the resistance of the Jefferson District Federation of Teachers.

The JDFT is an affiliate of the AFL-CIO American Federation of Teachers.

James Ballard, a teacher at Jefferson High School and president of the local 1481 AFT, voiced the objections of his group against the language of the proposal at last weeks' meeting.

Ballard recommended the policy be tabled!

Ballard, in a statement read to the Jefferson Union High School Board of Trustees, said the language is confusing.

His group objects to the use of the words "recognition" and "negotiation."

He said these words may violate California Government Code 3500-3509.

The code has been enacted to "improve personnel management and employee-employer relations" within public agencies.

The state code, he pointed out does not contain either of the words used in the local school board policy.

Ballard said the word "negotiation" has a meaning in the labor laws of California.

"Recognition has no legal definition within the labor laws, he said.

Ballard said the use of the phrase "pursuant to sections 3500-3507" in the proposed JUHSDTA policy may violate this state code.

Discussion by board members will continue at a future meeting.

Zoo director to talk to Thomas Edison PTA

The Thomas Edison PTA will meet Thursday, November 21, 8 p.m., in the Multi-use room.

The unit is honored to have as their guest speaker, Mr. Carey Baldwin, director of the San Francisco Zoological Gardens.

Mr. Baldwin recently returned from conducting a Safari in southern and eastern Africa, a safari that did not include shooting, merely the study and photographing of animals. Of special note on this safari was Baldwin's trip to the UMfolozi Game Reserve to check on the pair of Square-Lipped White rhinos earmarked for the San Francisco Zoo.

Mr. Baldwin is one of the most sought-after speakers in the Bay Area and has appeared before most civic groups. He has written articles for the Post and National Geographic and at present has a book in the hands of a publisher.

Letter grade emotions mixed at Westmoor

Great joy was experienced by some Westmoor students last Friday while others went into deep mourning for nine weeks, as report cards for the first half of the fall semester were distributed to the 1,976 students at the hilltop school.

The IBM machine was used to make up the report cards, after the 100 teachers had submitted their grades.

Receiving their report cards from their first period teachers, the students have been asked to have them signed by a parent or guardian and returned to the school.

Plea for help against landslides

A plea for help against landslides into the Pacific was voiced at last week's Daly City Council meeting by a group of Daly City residents.

John J. Murphy of 4 Lynvale Court, told councilmen that landslides were endangering homes in the area. A section of the old coast highway has already fallen, taking part of a backyard with it.

Mayor Joseph Verducci said a $109,000 survey has been approved by Congress for Thornton Beach. The survey is to be undertaken by the Corps of Engineers.

Councilman Robert St. Clair, said the city council will not shirk its responsibilities to the homeowners.

City engineer William Chapman said if the city of Daly City tried to stop the coast erosion it would ge a great expense.

He said the coast study will take about a year. He said the problem began when the state stopped repairing the old Coast highway. Another factor was that drain basins became clogged with silt and water and began undermining the coastline.

In other business, John King, a resident of 170 East Vista avenue, said Mrs. Joseph Folger, 886 Bellevue street said she was afraid of mudslides which could occur if rains began on proposed construction on "Christmas Tree Hill."

Her protest was against construction of apartments on property south of Brunswick street between Wellington avenue and Hillside boulevard.

The council in other action accepted the real property of the Bayshore Fire district.

United Crusade kicks off in Pacifica

Pacifica's Residential United Crusade campaign got off to a late start this week, having held up starting dates in order not to coflict with the local campaign in behalf of Mary's Help Hospital.

Chairman for Pacifica for the United Crusade is not discouraged by the fact the Pacifica is currently in 22nd or last place in County reports from the Northern Area. "We have a wonderful group of men as chairmen for each area," said Mrs. Edna Laurel Calhan. We were in first place last year and we're getting busy to make up for lost time."

There is a real need for dedicated men and women to assist the district chairmen this year, also those who can spare a few hours or so. Pacifica's quota is $1,252.00.

A report luncheon will be held at the Hillsdale in San Mateo on November 14, and Mrs. Calhan hopes to make a substantial gain report at that time.

She lists the ten public spirited men who are now serving as area chairmen: Robert D. Bouche, Edgemar; Paul Doyle, Pacific Manor; Ivan Jensen, Manor Village; Louis A. Lorenz, Westview; Daniel Martin, Sharp Park; Marion Phinney, Fairway Park; W. C. Howell, Vallemar; Leonard Mackey, Rockaway Beach; Bob McMannis, Linda Mar and Fire Chief Ed Greer, Pedro Point.

Collectors have taken as many as 500 gallons of "lady bug" bettles from a single 400-foot-square area.

WELCOME GUEST — Larry Seigel, student guest, is welcomed by President Paul Hupf to the Daly City Rotary Club. Ed Morgan, Rotary member, beams his approval. Larry is Student Body President at Westmoor High School. He has attended the Wednesday noon Rotary luncheon meetings of November 13 and 20 held in the Franciscan Room of the Serra Bowl. Each month a student guest is invited from one of the local schools through Herbert Tweedie, Chairman for Student Guests. The Rotary Club is composed of 55 local business and professional men dedicated to the ideals of mutual understanding and community and world service.

Breathin' mannequin used by DC firemen

"When a life hangs in balance—when somebody has stopped breathing—a little knowledge and a few seconds of prompt action could save that life."

So states Mel G. Hanson, battalion chief and training officer of the Daly City Fire Department.

Through a public education program, classes and demonstrations, the fire department, whose men are trained to save lives and property, intends to show Daly City residents how they can use a precious few seconds to save a life.

Know-How

The Daly City Fire Department has a mannequin—a human-size breathing doll—to demonstrate life-saving techniques.

Techniques of know-how—mouth-to-mouth resusitation and "closed chest" massage to restart a stopped heart.

Gift

The mannequin is a gift to the fire department from the North San Mateo County Insurance Agents' Association.

It was manufactured in Norway by the Asmund S. Laerdal Company especially to demonstrate revival methods.

The doll is called "Resusi-nne."

According to a story, the doll is a duplicate of a 17-year-old Norwegian movie star who died as a result of drowning.

Had someone been available at the scene of her death who knew how to use the mouth-to-mouth breathing method, her life might have been saved.

Time counts

When a person has stopped breathing, says Battalion Chief Hanson, oxygen, carried through the blood stream, is almost immediately cut off from the brain.

When this happens, brain-damage sets in, explains the chief.

If oxygen can be restored quickly, the damage is halted.

"Five minutes without oxygen and the brain is permanently harmed," adds Hanson.

The sooner artificial respiration is begun, the better are the chances for saving a person's life or preventing disability," declares the training officer.

Resusitation

"If a person has stopped breathing, from any cause whatsoever, resusitation should be started at once and we should be called," says Hanson.

"We are no more than two minutes away from any home in Daly City; we are trained to save lives, and we have the equipment to do it," he says.

"But, we must be called quickly," Hanson emphasizes.

Knowledge-practice

Officials of the Daly City Fire Department believe that mouth-to-mouth resusitation is the most reliable of the emergency breathing reviving methods.

Its technique is simple and, with a little practice, anyone can use the mehod.

But, declares fire department officers, it does require know-how and practice.

As Many as Possible

Hanson says it is the hope of the fire department to use "Resusi-Anne" to show as many people as possible how to give resusitation by mouth and massage a stopped heart.

The chief says the department hopes to hold classes before at least 2,000 groups in Daly City and the area.

He says they hope to do this before PTA's, church groups, service clubs, social clubs, civic organizations and others.

Presentation

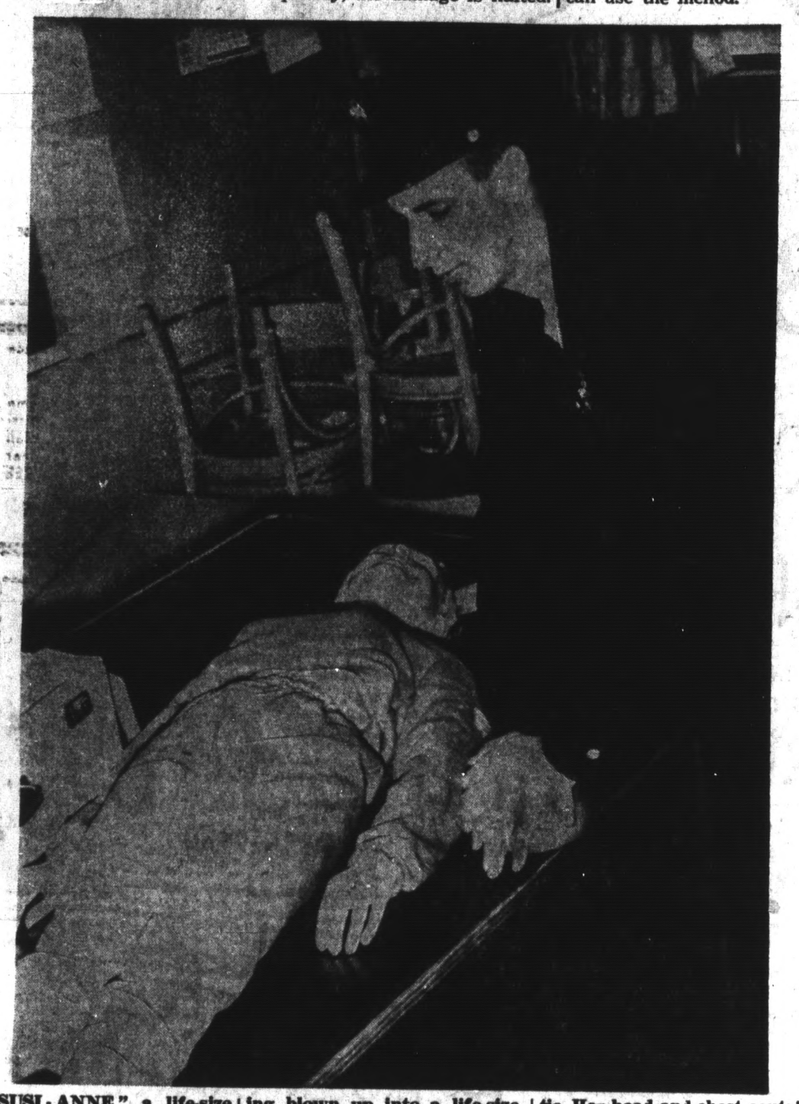
Representing the North San Mateo County Insurance Agents' Association at the presentation of "Anne" to the fire department were:

Peter Markovich, president of the association; Fred Bargioni, vice president; Walter Brodie, secretary-treasurer; and Ernest DaRoza, Mel Battye, Kay Maloney and Daniel Begovich.

The mannequin cost nearly $250.

FIREMAN GREY POSITIONS "ANNE'S HEAD, shoulders and neck on a pillow to keep her "tongue" from interfering with air going into her "lungs." Just as with a human victim of asphyxiation, if air passages are blocked, air cannot reach the lungs. This is an important step in resusitation. "Anne's" face, mouth, nose and other internal parts are sterilized after each demonstration. Each person practicing with "Anne" uses a thin, disposable plastic sheet to cover her mouth to prevent person-to-person contamination. Special valves inside "Anne's" throat prevent objectionable odors or tastes being inhaled by trainees.

"RESUSI-ANNE," a life-size breathing mannequin used by the Daly City Fire Department to demonstrate life-saving resusitation methods, folds up into this suitcase-sized carrying grip. Here "Anne" is being taken from her case prior to a demonstration by Daly City Fireman Gerald Grey.



"RESUSI-ANNE," a life-size breathing mannequin used by the Daly City Fire Department to demonstrate life-saving resusitation methods is being blown up into a life-size, 5-foot-4 inches. Fireman Gerald Grey mans the hand-pump. "Anne's" lower body is made from a flexible, inflatable plastic. Her head and chest contain a "throat" and "lungs" which function as they do in human breathing.

BATTALION CHIEF MEL G. HANSON, training officer of the Daly City Fire Department, uses rubber mannequin "Anne" to show the technique of "closed chest" massage to restart a stopped heart. The two tubes running from "Anne's" jumper attach to a set of dials (not shown) which indicate when and how air is passing into the doll's lungs during the mouth-to-mouth practice lessons. Too much is as bad as too little.

TV and RADIO

By Mona Baker

The most important broadcasting conference held in the country was just concluded last week with more than 300 leaders in broadcasting as well as prominent government officials in attendance. It was the fifth annual conference on public service programming sponsored by the Westinghouse Broadcasting Company.

Referred to as a "shirt-sleeve working session" with panel discussion, seminars, speeches, the purpose of the meeting was to examine current radio and television programming and other aspects of the industry.

You might ask "why is this important to you." As television viewers and radio listeners you are naturally interested in better TV and radio fare for your family. Such sessions do result in improved programs and progress in the industry.

It was our privilege to attend the conference when it was held a few years ago at Stanford University. Truly it was a memorable experience which we will never forget. Many of the technical advances which then seemed like magic have since come to pass. For instance, global television is now a reality, then it was only a dream. Many documentaries which were shown then were only on an experimental basis, now they are part of your weekly television offerings.

Westinghouse is to be congratulated for taking the leadership in such a vital field. Global television will be an important instrument for peace in the years ahead. The programs that we transmit around the world are influenced and improved by such conferences.

NAVY BOOT CAMP—Agnello Romano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Catello Romano, 1190 Hanover street, Daly City, has enlisted in the Navy's High School Graduate Training Program at the Navy Recruiting Office, 6705 Mission street, Daly City. After graduation from boot camp he will go to a Navy class "A" school in the field of his choice. Prior to enlisting in the Navy Romano was em- ployed by the Post Office De- partment. He is a graduate of Mission High School and at- tended City College of San Francisco.

Fernando Rivera PTA father's nite

It's "Fathers' Night" on Tuesday, November 26th at the Fernando Rivera School. The monthly PTA meeting will be followed by a Variety Show presented by the fathers. Re- freshments will be served fol- lowing the show. The meeting will start at 7:30. Incidentally, Mom is invited, too.

C. Columbus students study art, history

Miss Rosalie Anelli's first graders are learning a great deal about art this year. With the help of Mrs. Helen Cordell, Art Co-ordinator, they are studying about line, contour drawing of figures, and the artists who use this method of expression. This project will continue until they have ac- quired some knowledge of other areas of art expression: color, texture, shape and com- position.

Second grade classes were delighted with their visit to the Cow Palace during the re- cent Livestock Show. A first hand opportunity to observe stock and dairy cattle, pigs and sheep is an experience for city children. The classes that visited the Cow Palace were Mrs. Clarice Dominge, Mrs. Kay Antongiovanni and Miss Carol McHugh.

With the help of Mrs. Judy Grubbs, student teacher, Miss O'Rourke's third grade is find- ing that their county has an interesting history. One of the highlights of their study was a field trip to the Woodside Store in which they found a restoration of the past. Relics and replicas of earl days in San Mateo County abound there to remind us that the pioneers of San Mateo did not live in a push-button age.

The trip continued to Hud- dart Park which presented an exceptional opportunity for nature study at first hand. A nature walk in the Redwood Grove brought recognition of trees and shrubs previously studied in class.

Collections of rocks and red- wood cones and other nature specimens serve as the basis for further research.

Miss Pegggy Palmer's Spe- cial Class enjoyed a visit to the liner, President Wilson. They were impressed with the size and appointments of this fine ship.

Girl Scout 'curved bar' dinner set

Curved Bar, the highest rank in Girl Scouting, has been earned by 106 San Francisco girls who will be honored at a recognition dinner tomorrow (Thursday) at 6 p.m., in the Terrace Room of the Fairmont Hotel. Each girl is being spon- sored at the dinner by a promi- nent woman active in the com- munity and public affairs.

Guest speaker will be John G. Neukom, managing partner of McKinsey and Company, management consultants.

Mrs. R. C. Arquette will be the toast mistress for the evening program, which will include a flag ceremony by senior Girl Scouts of Troop 1523, Mrs. E. Donohoe, troop adviser. Mrs. Thaddeus J. Whalen, president of the San Francisco Bay Girl Scout Council, will give the presi- dent's message. Deborah Whitehead, senior Girl Scout of Troop 1412 led by Mrs. Wil- liam Aubel, will speak on senior aide opportunities for service. Community singing of Girl Scout songs will be led by Mrs. H. P. Hauser.

Librarian visits class at Wilson school

Mrs. Virginia Taylor, Chief Librarian in the Children's Di- vision of the San Jose Public Libraries, visited the Woodrow Wilson School for storytime.

Mrs. Taylor introduced some newly published children's books and entertained with a puppet show and story drama- tization.

CITING HIS SUPERIOR WORK in helping to activate the 5th Infantry Division at Fort Carson and for his out- standing performance during three major joint Armed Forces exercises in which the 5th Division participated, Lt. Col. Sidney Gritz, 5th Division Adjutant General, presents Maj. James J. Benane, at right, Adjutant General executive of- ficer, with an Army Commen- dation Medal. (U.S. Army Photo). The Benanes are at their home, 122 St. Francis Blvd., Daly City, Calif.

Daniel Webster students take varied excursions

Thirty-seven children from Mrs. Judy Murphy's and Miss Eunice Wright's sixth grade classes went to the San Fran- cisco Opera House to see Fal- staff recently. Although the opera was sung in Italian the children knew the story and were familiar with the music so they followed the action well and enjoyed particularly Geraint Evans' portrayal of Falstaff and Mary Costa's singing as Mistress Ford.

The fourth grade classes of Mrs. Ruth Rogers and Mrs. Barbara Schwartz visited the Mission Dolores and the Cliff House.

At the Cliff House the chil- dren made studies of the dia- ramas in the various music boxes of the early times.

The boys made a study of the development of the bicy- cle.

This is the story written after the trip by Amy Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hall:

"OUR TRIP ON MISSIONS"
by Amy Hall

Our class went to Mission Dolores. We sat in the same pews built one hundred years ago. We saw the beautiful roof dyed with vegetable dye.

After this, we went out to the cemetery. There was a grave of the first Mayor of San Francisco. We also saw Father Junipero Serra's statue who was the Father. On the outside there is a Redwood cross. Most of us thought it was in the cemetery but I know where it was (outside).

After this we went to the Cliff House. Outside, by the Ocean we ate lunch. It started to rain but that didn't stop me. I ate my lunch like I was at a picnic.

Next we went inside the Cliff House and some people had dimes and nickels. They put them in machines. Then we went downstairs and stud- ied 21 Missions.

I learned a lot and when we study the Missions I'm sure I'll know a lot more than if I didn't go." (end of story)

The kindergarten classes taught by Miss Andrea Gross made a trip to the central fire department to see in reality what they have been studying in the classroom.

Miss Nancy Palmer's class at Daniel Webster and Miss Peggy Palmer's class at Chris- topher Columbus went on two field trips recently. The first trip was to United Airlines and the International Airport Ter- minal. They went aboard a jet, sat in passengers' seats, saw the cockpit, and watched the pilot and co-pilot adjust the controls. They saw the ticket office, baggage room and the observation deck, where they ate lunch while watching the landing, take-off and servicing of the planes.

The second study trip for the combined classes was to the American President's line, the S.S. Cleveland at Pier 50. The tour included the lounge, library, dining room and state- rooms, as well as the swim- ming pool, tennis court and game deck.

The children ate lunch near the heliport and watched the vertical take-offs and landings of the helicopters.

Mrs. Dick Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilbert help- ed keep the children together and explained things to them.

Game night

To benefit City of Hope Hos- pital, The Singleton chapter, composed of single men and women, will hold a Thanks- giving Game Night next Wed- nesday, Nov. 27 at 8 p.m. at The Seven Hills Club, 26 Cali- fornia St. Donation is $1 per person. Refreshments will be served.

Westmoor wanderings

THAT WAS THE WEEK THAT WAS AT WHS: new quarter, fresh chances, clean slates, and renewed energy—also new report cards, the only cloud on this horizon of glori- ous freshness.

HOLLYWOOD came to Westmoor yesterday in the form of the Academy-Award hoarder Gigi. Sponsored by the French Club, the film was shown after school and in the evening. Part of the proceeds will be contributed to the Miguel Memorial Scholarship Fund, established in the mem- ory of the late WHS Spanish teacher. The remaining lucre will be dedicated to zealous French pursuit of wine, wo- men, and song—translated to Rom language, dinner, stu- dents, theater.

RAMSVILLE AT RANDOM: Worldly juniors are prayer- fully filling out applications for the Experiment in Inter- national Living summer abroad program . . .

CSF's returned glowing with Oski inspiration from their re- cent jaunt across the Bay to the hallowed halls of Berkeley. Unforgettable moments in the trip included scanning the cam- pus from perches in the ab- solutely highest row in the Greek Theater and viewingg the ghastly green foam of Ludwig's Fountain . . .

"Coming soon" added attrac- tion for all nascent Rampages of the school year—cartoons! Created by freshman Pat Furrer. the sketches will of course feature the mighty Ram shown flaunting his sun- dry and innumerable con- quests. Preview of Pat's sketches was the washover used for the Westmoor-El Camino game last Friday.

SNIPS 'N' SNAILS Tickets are on sale for the annual PTA dinner and faculty - versus - seniors basketball game. The latter activity will feature such all-time teachorial greats as "hot shot" Van Alstyne, "play- maker" Giammona, and "el- bows" Carr.

Now in the stage of furious trade, the I.D. photos taken last month which were distri- buted this week will soon be monogrammed, autographed, be-signed, and perhaps be- moustached by dedicated de- votees of the delicate art.

Publicity-weary Rams will have to smile once again for their public. The Executive Board of South San Francisco High has asked permission to see a Westmoor rally in action and perhaps sit in on an Exe- cutive Assembly gathering. Such is the price of fame . . .

ORCHIDS to the math de- partment from the journalism department for the delicious cake, which was thoroughly enjoyed by co-editors, adviser, and other hungry persons in the immediate area. However, we shudder to think of the ef- fect on our waistlines if every- one who received publicity from the press would bake his thanks into a chocolate-frosted angel food offering.

Modern math study by D. Webster PTA

Daniel Webster PTA mem- bers will study "Modern Ma- thematics" at their unit meet- ing on Wednesday, November 20, at 8 p.m. in the school multi-purpose room. Dr. James Smart, associate professor of mathematics at San Jose State college, will be the principal speaker.

Dr. Smart will include both explanations and demonstra- tions of modern mathematics in his talk. To enlarge on this subject, three Daniel Webster teachers, Mrs. Carle, Mrs. Kellog, and Mrs. Mequier, will present a short film and talk to demonstrate teaching tech- niques on this subject. A ques- tion and answer session will follow, according to Dr. Smart.

Mrs. Jerome Gayne, pro- gram chairman, urges all parents to attend and find out all that is possible about this repidly changing subject.

Toward no-man's land

The somewhat startling realization that there are some other cherished and worthy "rights" besides those that have come to be known in the great surging crusade for black and white integration as "civil rights" is forcibly brought to mind in the current issue of the National Review Bulletin.

The publication sees in this "hot pursuit of social goals" the same spirit of desperate urgency that drives a nation at war—in which "we must, as in behalf of victory in wartime, be prepared to adjourn any commonly understood rights that stand in our way . . ." And National Review's observer of this frenetic scene cites some examples:

"For instance: In New York last week the Commission on Human Rights has called for giving Negro workers preferential treatment, 'to make up for the discrimination of 100 years.' The right of white people to equal treatment, it is proposed, shall be set aside.

"For instance: In Chicago last week, tens of thousands of demonstrators called for compulsory reassignment of pupils in any school whose Negro enrollment exceeds 50 percent. The right of a student to attend the neighborhood school, irrespective of its racial composition, is, apparently, to be set aside.

"For instance: In the United Nations last week a resolution was passed, in the name of racial equality, demanding that South Africa change its domestic policies. The right of a state to govern its own affairs is to be set aside.

"For instance: In Washington last week a committee of Congress endorsed an omibus civil rights bill. It is proposed among other things, to deprive the individual entrepreneur of the right to manage his business according to his own lights.

"How far is it all to go?" the magazine asks. "Last week the United Nations revived a provision of the Genocide Convention calling for criminal penalties against anyone who raised his voice in such a way as to stimulate invidious feelings against any race or religion . . . It is proposed, then to redefine the freedom of speech.

"How far indeed? And when will the proponents of all these measures stop to realize that we have not much further to go before we will in fact be inviting the Negro race to join us equally in an unfree society?"

We will have gone far out of our way, indeed, to prove the adage that hell is paved with good intentions.

Safety on a Plate

The American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators, the state officials in charge of vehicle registration and operation, recently recommended the use of "safety" license plates as an effective, inexpensive way to reduce rear-end collisions on our highways.

The safety tags, now being used by 13 states and the District of Columbia (and by three more states in 1964), are covered with a reflective material that shines brilliantly at night in the headlights of approaching cars.

The cost of the plates, as compared to standard plates, is only about 25 cents more per car—cheap enough, if accidents and deaths are prevented by their use.

These plates are particularly useful because studies of the operating condition of cars over the past years show that rear lights and stop lights are the parts most commonly defective. In 1962, a National Safety Council study found that 34 percent of cars had defective lights on the rear. The next most common item, front lights, was a distant second with only 11 percent.

If a car could be equipped with a safety device that can be seen from as far as 1,500 feet at night, even if the car that was parked or disabled had no operating lights, it could prevent many accidents.

And the cost? At a quarter a car, it's worth it.

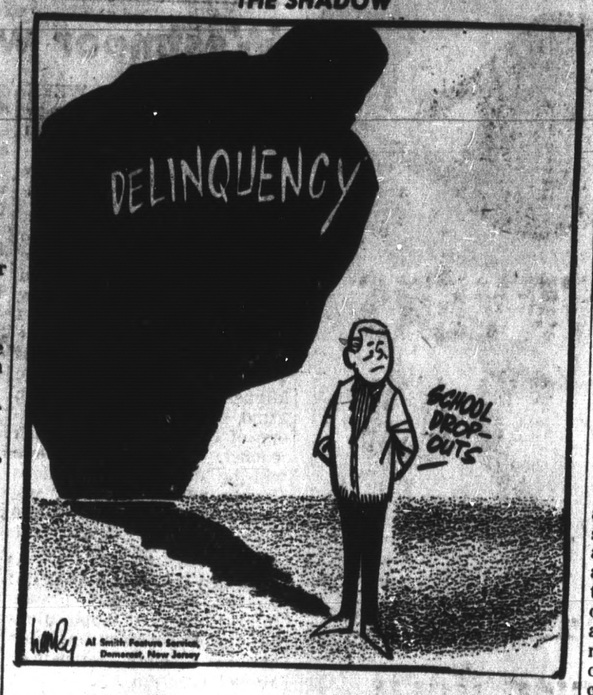
THE SHADOW



Something for Everyone

By Samuel Chandler

The classics aren't boresome. Who can not be intrigued by the tournament scene from Ivanhoe, or weep for Othello's Desdemona, or laugh at the Duke and the King's fake show in Huckleberry Finn. Romance, adventure, laughter, illusion, dreams, hopes, fears, anger resentment these are the things that are found in the classics.

The classics were written by courageous men and women—not sissies and quitters. Their authors were people who dared to stand up and say "This is the way things seem to me rather you like it or not." For department from the processes and codes of the day, the authors of classics, were denounced the world over. Yet they stood their grounds and by so doing made an imprint on our culture.

Witness Tom Paine listening to children call him the devil and watching a mob tear down his house because he dared to write "The Age of Reason." Shakespeare was embarrassed by wags who called him Shakescene. Dickens was threatened with arrest if he entered cities that didn't like his exposure of the conditions inflicted upon the poor.

The authors of classics spent hours upon hours even years polishing and perfecting their work. Milton drove himself until he lost his sight, Mark Twain took seven years to write his greatest masterpiece, Hawthorne shut himself away from the world so he could write the "Scarlet Letter."

Classics are works that have been acclaimed for their excellence by experts. They must represent the times and the places they describe. If they are stories they must be most interesting and employ language that captures the readers.

There never was a dull classic. Some classics, however, require concentration on the part of the reader. And why not. Isn't life this way? Babe Ruth became the world's greatest batter after years of concentration; the Four Horsemen learned how to play football after Knute Rockne had forced them through gruelsome training, Eisenhower learned tactics by participating in war games.

So it is with reading the classics. They offer great rewards to the person who will read them and think with the man who wrote them.

Better Business Bureau

What to look for when buying a new car

By Lorene Beasley, Editor of The BBB Barometer

Every year, as regular as Christmas, the auto showrooms are filled with men and women looking at the latest in the car world and hoping to either buy outright or trade in their old car on the New Look.

The reliability of the automobile is the most important factor in the purchase of an automobile, be it new or used. The majority of automobile dealers are reputable business men, dependent upon customer good will for their continued business success. There are two types of dealers; one has a new car franchise for the sale and service of new cars and takes in used cars in trade and resells them. The other type buys and sells used cars only. The new car dealer has a responsibility to both his new car buyers and his used car buyers. He cannot sell new cars unless he sells used cars.

Prices on new cars, the cost of which should fit the purchaser's pocketbook, are determined, in part, only by the manufacturer's suggested "list" price. Actual selling price may vary due to supply and demand or because of the pricing policy of the dealer. These variations are often reflected in the cash discounts given, or in the amount of trade-in allowance given. In some cases, dealers may quote a price on a new car that is a few hundred dollars over and above a competitor's selling price. This overage is, in effect, a cushion to permit bargaining and to enable the dealer to offer a higher trade-in allowance or a fictitious discount if no trade-in is involved. That practice is one form of "packing" new car prices to the buyer. Discounts and allowances are the greatest during the period immediately preceding the introduction of the new model cars.

Unethical dealers use "bait" advertising. The price of an automobile should be the full retail delivered price for the car equipped as described or pictured unless the advertising clearly states otherwise.

What is a new car? A new car is a car that has not been registered by a private owner. A "demonstrator," although it may have been driven many miles, can be registered as a new car. However, a new car offered by an unauthorized dealer at what is represented as a "discount" price and known as a "bootleg car," does not carry the manufacturer's warranty nor is it guaranteed against defective parts or workmanship by the manufacturer.

Some buyers prefer to sell their own car, hoping to receive more money in this manner than they would in a trade-in with a dealer. Be on guard against "macing." This is the scheme of fly-by-night operators who advertise and offer to buy used cars at a much higher figure than reliable dealers can afford to give. These fly-by-night operators who advertise and offer to buy used cars at attractive prices, pay a small amount of cash and give their notes for the balance. Before the notes come due, the "fly-by-night" operator disappears and the notes are worthless. Do NOT deliver your car to any person unless you know he is responsible. Get a written acknowledgement of the receipt of the car, signed by the proper person and clearly identifying the car and its selling price.

Reports from a number of automobile purchasers show that "bushing" is on the increase. "Bushing" is a term applied to any one of several methods of increasing the selling price of a car above that originally quoted the purchaser after he had made the initial payment, either in money or with a trade-in or signed contract. It is usually accomplished by a salesman offering an eceptionally high trade-in allowance which is later repudiated by the management with the purpose of persuading the customer to turn in his car at a lower price. The original offer or order detains the customer and prevents him from looking elsewhere.

A "silent" or "pencil bushing" is efected by writing in a high selling price or lower trade-in allowance than that varbally represented after a customer has signed an incomplete or blank contract.

The various types of contracts are too numerous to be explained in detail. Contracts or agreements to buy should not be signed—nor a deposit made, until you know and agree to all the terms and have definitely decided to buy. You should receive a properly filled out copy at the time of sale.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Harrah,

North Peninsula Circle of the Florence Crittenton Home wishes to thank you and your staff for the wonderful publicity given our recent "Fall Fantasy" luncheon-fashion show. We consider the luncheon was a tremendous success and was in great part due to the publicity by The Times, and also the coverage throughout the year by Mona Baker in her "From a Feminine Viewpoint."

Thanking you again,

To the Editor:

B'nai Israel versus San Mateo Supervisors

Many words have been said and written about our beloved Temple which we the members of Congregation B'nai Israel have to leave in the very near future. For nearly one year we have been searching, negotiating and abandoning to replace our present Temple. Sites to build a House of Worship are not to be had unless you have the right amount of money behind you. We are a group of people who work mostly six days a week for a living. We are determined to educate our children to be good American Jews, who believe in the heritage of conservative Judaism. Do we ask for much?

Some of our members and friends in our community, who mean well, were angered at the Board of Supervisors' decision to overrule the San Mateo Planning Commission's approval of building on the site purchased in Colma. To clarify some of the misinterpretations, the President of the Congregation reports that the Mayor, the Council and other officials of Daly City have been most helpful in every respect toward our Congregation and will, according to Mayor Verducci, continue to do so. We are most grateful to all City Officials and also to the Ministerial Association of the City for pledging their support to our cause.

We are of the opinion that wrong has been done to us by the Board of Supervisors and we will leave no stone unturned until we will be able to build a new Temple and Sunday School for our chil... who to us are the futu... America and our heri... Anyone who is interest... our cause may contact ... Rabbi S. Shore at JU. 6... or write to 67 Los Banos ... nue, Daly City.

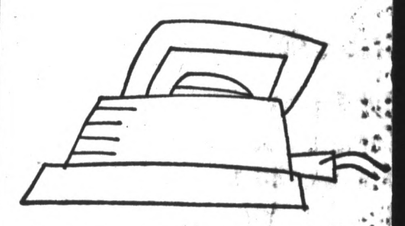
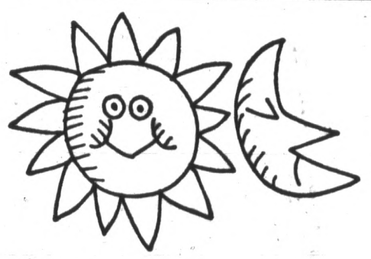
Six reasons why you'll waltz through washday with an automatic dryer:

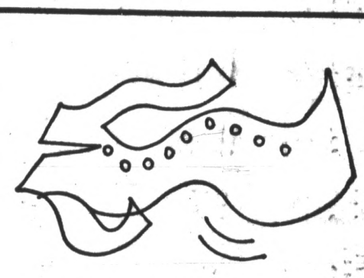
You won't have to lift and lug those back-breaking baskets of wet wash any more. (The average homemaker carries about two tons of wet wash to the line each year.)



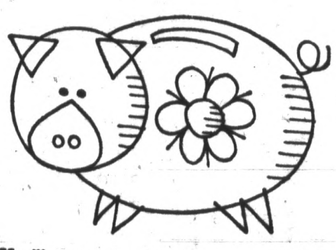
Ironing is easier. New damp-dry settings make clothes come out just right for ironing. And some fabrics come out so wrinkle-free, they need no ironing at all.



You'll be able to dry your wash at any hour of the day or night. And don't forget the weather! Or rather, do forget it. With a dryer, any day is wash day.



Laundry comes out soft, fluffy . . . looks and feels good. And a dryer's ultra-violet light gives your clothes the sweet smell of summer sunshine all year long.



You'll save money on clothing—especially for "small-fry." Clothing lasts longer, and fewer clothes and linens are needed when you can wash and dry any time.

You'll feel so much fresher at the end of the day. And think of the extra time you'll be able to spend with your family—instead of with your clothesline.

From A Feminine Viewpoint...

A roly-poly snowman complete with jaunty top hat and green tie adorned the program covers—the theme was "Holiday in Sun Valley"—truly a festive show was last Saturday's fashion show presented by Job's Daughters (Bethel No. 198) at Crocker Masonic Temple in Daly City.

The decorations were in keeping with the holiday feeling as were the beautiful fashions from H. Liebes. On the stage were ski posters and pictures of Sun Valley with replicas of yule logs in the foreground.

The fashion show (skillfully narrated by H. Liebes fashion expert, Jeanette Parkinson) took the guests whirling down the ski slopes and on to a gala New Year's Eve party complete with confetti.

Among theoutstanding fashions was a jade green jacket dress worn by Dorothy Knox (Queen Linda Knox's mother). A sparkling snow princess was Margie Long in winter white wool. Linda Long was chic in turquoise skirt and popcorn sweater.

Quite dramatic was Janet Cuniberti in orange and yellow wool. A soft pink wool and mohair 2-piece suit dress was modeled by Chris Wigton. Chic green-blue in two-piece brushed wool shown by Janice Garretson. Two evening fashions rated oh's and ah's; a dramatic beige brocade shown by Jean Cuniberti and an elegant red brocade dress and coat modeled by Elizabeth Perry.

Our community leader this week is another one who protests "but, why me? I really haven't done anything." Then we start talking and the many volunteer hours devoted to community activities grows longer and longer.

A charter member of the North Peninsula Circle of Florence Crittenton Home, she is co-chairman of the hospitality committee. She just completed serving as publicity chairman for their "Fall Fantasy" fashion show. She also gives time to the Jefferson School District Council of PTA where she serves on the executive board as health chairman. She has been active in Fernando Riviera PTA serving as historian, membership chairman and room mother.

She has been chairman of the "Come See" tours for United Bay Area Crusade for five years and works too in the Big Brothers auxiliary of San Francisco. She has also worked on every local community fund drive.

We salute Roz Smice as our community leader of the week. Residents of Daly City for eleven years, the Smice family, husband Robert, and two sons (Robert Jr. and Billy) live at 61 Crestwood Drive in Westlake.

We are convinced now more than ever that we live in one of the finest and most responsive communities anywhere in the country. Many times in our column we ask support for worthwhile community activities.

A couple of weeks ago we mentioned that Bunny Gillespie is interested in receiving any extra blue chip stamps or Betty Crocker coupons that you might have. She collects them for the Inner City Guild of San Francisco that supports destitute churches in the area.

We would like to say thanks to you for the wonderful response. Because of your interest she was able to supply four sets of forks for one of the churches.

In case you still might have some coupons and stamps that you would like to contribute, she is still interested in receiving them. Just drop them in an envelops and mail them to Mrs. Gillespie, 1067 Gilman, Colma.

The church's role in Mental Health

By MRS. ROLLAND WICK

Mental health services will be established soon in North San Mateo county. This is the eighth in a series of articles examining the community mental health needs in North County. In next week's article, the final of this series, Dr. Joseph J. Downing will explain just how mental health services will begin in this area, and outline its hoped-for growth. Statements from Rev. Kenneth Hansen of Westlake and Sister Hermine of Mary's Help Hospital, are featured in this article.

"What of the church's role in the mental health of this community." in a statement, more a challenge than a question, heard by us from several sides.

We have examined some of the existing community strengths in North San Mateo county. We have tried to see what role these strengths play in the mental health of the people who live here.

We have heard Edward Morgan, superintendent of Jefferson High School district, probation officer Jose Bernal, and Daly City Mayor Joseph Verducci all refer to the church as an integral part of the sources of strength in any community.

From the office of Dr. H. D. Chope, director of San Mateo county department of public health and welfare, we have a chart labeled "A Spectrum of Mental Health Services." In simple form it shows an outline of mental health services and help available to the people in San Mateo county. This includes those who receive treatment for mental illness on a 24-hour basis, to those who live independently in what we call "normal society." There are radiating lines upon which are written such helps as alcoholic ward, psychiatric day center, retardation clinic, public health nurses, state bureau of social work.

However, at the very core of the radiating lines is written the word "Relisions," and in prominence in the sections "community" and "normal society" is the word "churches."

We asked Rev. Kenneth Hansen, pastor of Westlake Lutheran Church, how he related the role of the church with the mental health of its people. This is his answer.

"I see the church's concern as for the whole person. We cannot divide the body, mind, and spirit. Man needs to find a way to relate to himself, to God, to others.

"Specifically, in concern for the mental health of its people, the church plays two roles. The pastor finds himself in the front lines. Many people bring their problems to the pastor. It is his responsibility to uncover these problems, and, within his capabilities, bring help. He must then seek competent help for those who need it. Pastors should develop their own interests and abilities in this area so as to try to meet this need within each congregation.

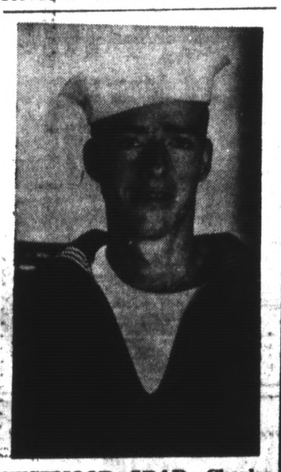
"The second function of the church could well be to provide more possibilities for the teaching of better ways to good mental health. The church could surely be a meeting place, for instance, for a neighborhood discussion group of working mothers. Or what of a short "talk-it-out" series for both mother and father on how to be better parents, perhaps guided by some of the well-trained mental health workers and expjerienced community leaders. The church could do much to make such helpful events more easily available."

In still another way the church becomes directly involved in the mental health of a community. It is often the sponsoring and directing strength behind a hospital. Daly City has now under construction it's first large general hospital. It is hoped that Mary's Help Hospital will be completed and ready to serve this area within two years.

With the newest approach to care and treatment of mental and emotional illness centering around keeping people as close to their homes as possible, the general hospital will play an increasingly important role in community mental health services, through including psychitric wards within the hospital, and providing out-patient facilities.

In this regard, Sister Hermine, administrator of Mary's Help Hospital has this to say: "Mary's Help Hospital is vitally interested in the mental health program of northern San Mateo county. The acute need for general beds has not permitted Mary's Help to include a psychiatric unit in the present construction program, but the long range building program does include extensive mental health service."

Sister Hermine stressed the hospital's desire to participate in the community development of an adequate mental health program in the northern part of the county.



WESTMOOR GRAD—Charles V. Coen, son of Caroline Coen, 563 Farralon avenue, Pacifica, is going through Navy training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego. He is a graduate of Westmoor High School and was employed by the Drake Publishing Company prior to enlisting.

Child education talk slated at T. Edison

Dr. Lucile Lindberg, president of Association for Childhood Education International, will be the principal speaker at the December meeting of Daly City Association for Childhood Education. This meeting, open to all who are interested in the well-being of children, will be held in the multi-use room of Thomas Edison School beginning at 7:30 p.m., on Monday evening, December 2nd.

Dr. Lindberg, Professor of Education, at Queens College, New York, will speak on the subject, "Concerns of Children are Worldwide." Dr. Lindberg is an internationally known educator who has travelled extensively throughout the world studying systems of education and their effects on children. Her understanding of the problems facing parents and teachers in the United States is widely acknowledged.

In addition to Dr. Lindberg's address, which will be followed by a question and answer period, there will be an exhibit of children's books. Also on the program is the singing of Christmas carols by the Thomas Edison Honor Glee Club.

Mrs. Georgina Nyhan, president of the Daly City A.C.E., also announces at this time, two additional programs that the association will be presenting on this year's program. On January 28, 1964 at 3:30 p.m., at Fernando Rivera School, two speakers, Mrs. Jean Oberlander and Mrs. Helen Cordell will discuss two phases of International education—art and reading. On March 19, 1964 at Christopher Columbus School at 3:30 p.m., Dr. Samuel Kermoian will present slides and a discussion of UNESCO activities in Brazil.

The general meetings of the Daly City Association for Childhood Education are open to all who are interested in children, including teachers, administrators, parents and community workers.

Those interested in knowing more about the Association, now chartered and affiliated with the international and state associations, should contact Mrs. Louise Bostwick, Membership Chairman, Olympia School, WYman 2-1000, extension 344.

Westmoor High PTA meeting is Nov. 21

Especially honored at this meeting will be the parents of new students at Westmoor.

The colors will be presented by troop No. 24 of the senior girl scouts. Refreshments will be served.

The PTA membership committee reports that the initial membership drive resulted in the gratifying total of 403 members, comprised of 303 parents (115 men and 188 women) and 100 teachers. It is expected that this total will be increased considerably at the coming meeting.

M. P. Brown urges parents to recognize responsibilities

Believing that a child welfare organization's success can only be measured by the service it renders to children, the M. Pauline Brown PTA executive board has expressed its hope that each parent in the Daly City area will consider the importance of the problem of child molestation, and recognize his responsibility toward his child's safety.

The expression follows MPB's receipt of a report by the study committee on child molestation which was recently completed under the sponsorship of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Incidence of such offenses in the North County during the past year has been "very low," according to Captain Roy Beecher of the Daly City Police Department and in the neighboring police district, Broadmoor, reports of such incidents were "extremely low, almost non-existant."

"But," said Mrs. Norman Gotelli, president of the PTA unit, "Even one case is too many. That is why we wish to alert parents of their responsibility, as suggested by the CCPT."

The spokeslady went on to recognize the subject as neither pretty nor remote, but a problem which might be slowed or averted by foresight rather than by painful hindsight.

In making its study the CCPT committee utilized background information obtained in interviews of representatives of the California State Department of Health and Mental Health, the California Youth Authority, the attorney general's office, the state district attorney's organization and various judges, school guidance personnel and law enforcement officers.

"Suggestions for Parents' Responsibility," as presented in the committee's 2-page report were:

1—Remember that your child's safety and sex education are mainly your responsibility.

2—Give your child the best home life you possibly can with all the love and affection he needs so that he will tell you of any unusual situation.

3—Take time to listen to him so that he can tell you of any unusual situation in such a way that he will not be afraid to relate the incident even if he has broken one of your rules.

4—Learn how to tell the difference between fact and fiction.

5—Do not spread rumors of cases in the community. Gossip may do further damage to an already harmed child.

6—If an incident occurs, it is important that you remain calm and reassure your child, and then cooperate with the police or sheriff's department.

7—Recognize that it is not only the stranger who presents a hazard to the child but that it may be someone already known to him. (The report noted that in a large percentage of molestation cases, the offender is not a stranger to the child but is a neighbor or some member of the family, such as an uncle, father or stepfather. These are particularly difficult to prosecute since the family may not coeperate. Authorities point out that failure to report such crimes often places the same child or other children in greater danger).

8—Realize that boys as well as girls may be approached, teen-agers as well as younger children.

9—Be very careful whom you employ as a baby-sitter. Ask for and check references.

10—Make inquiries about anyone offering your son or daughter a job (especially baby-sitting). These inquiries should include transportation, condition of eployment, and name and address of employer.

11—Be responsible for adequate supervision in the home when you are away, regardless of your child's age.

12—Train your child that it is important for you to know his plans—where he is, when he will return, and the full names and addresses of his companions.

13—Do not allow your children, especially girls, to dress or act in an immodest or suggestive manner.

14—Be aware of laws pertaining to youth and hitchhiking, curfew and driving.

15—Insist that your child avoid playing in dangerous areas, vacant buildings or public rest rooms.

16—Teach your child to report to you, to his teacher, a policeman or other responsible person, a stranger who (a) asks him to go anywhere—into a car, a private room or home, for a walk or to a movie. He should say NO. He should be polite but firm. If a car is involved, he should write down the license number and try to remember what the car looked like; (b) tries to talk to or touch him in any improper way, to to fuss with his clothes; (c) offers candy, toys or a job with pay.

17—Know the regulations of the local theaters and inform your children. If these regulations seem inadequate for the safety of children, do not allow your child to attend.

18—Do not allow your children to participate in door to door solicitations or sales without adequate adult supervision.

New members inducted into Lions Club

Two new members were inducted into the Daly City-Colma Lions Club last Wednesday at the weekly meeting at Toto's.

Installed by membership co-chairman Jim Harrah were "Pat" Harris and Dr. J. A. Elfant.

"The case of the disappearing cemetery," a story of the removal of the Laurel Hill cemetery to Colma was told members of the club. Frank Shiedak of Cypress Lawn was in charge of removing the 46,000 burials during the late '30's and early 40's and told details of this event.

Federation tours UC

Fifty members from Westmoor High's California Scholarship Federation and ten members of Oceana's C. S. F. chapter journeyed to the University of California at Berkeley on Wednesday, November 13.

Touring the grounds under the supervision of University student guides, the visitors viewed campus life first hand.

They observed such points of interest as the Greek Theatre, which holds a capacity of 10,000 and where football rallies are held; the Student Union, which contains facilities ranging from an art gallery to a bowling alley; and the numerous divisions and sections of the immense student library. Also visited by several campus guests, were new dormatories, some of which are still under construction.

Westmoorites spotted several former classmates who are now active members of the Cal Student Body.

Accompanying the group was WHS's C. S. F. adviser, Evelyn Slater, who states that a study group is being planned for the final C. S. F. meeting of the year at which time Dean of Girls Margaret Riggs, will provide college bound sophomores and juniors with information concerning college entrance exams.

Newly - elected Westmoor C. S. F. officers are Lynn Jones, president; Sherry Rosen, vice-president; and Sue Irby, secretary-treasurer.

School spirit ran high as Christopher Columbus students learned the democratic way of choosing officers for their student body, through election.

On Thursday, November 7, an assembly was held to present the candidates. Richard Gray, Master of Ceremonies, led the flag salute. He explained the duties of the student body officers and presented a short discussion of good citizenship which is the basis of the Christopher Columbus award system. Every month the fifth and sixth grade classes choose a student of the month. The selection is based upon classroom achievement ,sportsmanship, reliability, and respect for adult and school authority. Students of the month become eligible for the blue and white C.C. emblem, which are awarded at the end of the year. From students of this quality candidates for officers are selected.

Then the big moment arrived. Richard Gray introduced a campaign manager for each candidate. Each manager gave a pep talk and presented his nominee. Then the candidates presented their qualifications and campaign pledges. Everyone acquitted himself well.

The following were introduced:

President, Peter Hoover, presented by John Harrison (room 5, Mr. Janney).

President, Clay Serrahn, presented by Richard Gray, (room 4, Miss Marino).

Vice president, Kevin Seltenrich, presented by Robert Caldwell, (room 1, Miss Light).

Secretary, Denise Jensen, presented by Tori Osborne, (room 1, Miss Light).

Secretary, Kerry Riemers, presented by Diane Teasland, (room 3, Miss Toft).

Treasurer, Robert Guillory, presented by Steven Mancuso, (room 3, Miss Toft).

Treasurer, Rebecca Rozman, presented by Caroline Love, (room 5, Mr. Janney).

Posters and banners were displayed. The rooters for each candidate were numerous, but mannerly.

The assembly closed with the announcement of the voting time and place.

At 10:00 a.m., on Friday, November 8, a businesslike election was conducted in the school library. Each child from the fourth, fifth, and sixth grade cast his secret ballot. The results of the ballot were as follows:

President, Peter Hoover;
Vice president, Angela Gardner;
Secretary, Denise Jensen;
Treasurer, Robert Guillory.

Catholic charities drive begins Sunday

Togetherness is not necessarily the same as unity, nor is it an indispensable condition for unity. This was the thinking which led the members of the Daly City ministers' association to try a different approach to Thanksgiving services this year. Instead of following the practice of the past few years and conducting one or two union services on Thanksgiving day in addition to services conducted by the churches whose pastors are members of the association, it was felt that the community would be better served by urging all the citizens to attend one of the churches in their neighborhood.

To facilitate such attendance and to affirm the basic unity between the churches involved it was decided to publicize the times and places of Thanksgiving services during the two weeks preceding Thanksgiving day, and to do so as a group. A partial list of such services follows, to be completed for publication next week.

Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, the Rev. H. C. Tweedie, pastor, located at 377-87th Street in Daly City will hold a Thanksgiving service on Wednesday, November 27, at 8:00 p.m. The pastor will preach on "Reasons for Thankfulness" and the choir will sing Dickson's "Thanks be to God."

Seacliff Community Church, the Rev. Clark Robb, Pastor, is conducting its Thanksgiving communion service as part of a series of four Friday night services. As this series is a "School of Missions" the featured speaker at this Thanksgiving service will be Dr. Mabel Silver, M.D. a missionary from Africa. The time is 7:30 p.m. on Friday, November 29, the church is located at 50 Northridge Drive in Daly City.

St. Martin's Episcopal Church, the Rev. Richard P. Fowler, Vicar, 777 Southgate Ave., Daly City, (Westlake) is scheduling its Thanksgiving observance with Holy Communion and Sermon for 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, November 28.

Wesley Methodist Church, the Rev. E. A. Wolfe, Pastor, will observe Thanksgiving during the Sunday morning worship on November 24. The congregation is worshipping at Thomas Edison School, 1225 Southgate Ave., Daly City which is the reason no special Thanksgiving services are scheduled.

Westlake Lutheran Church, The Rev. Kenneth D. Hansen, Pastor, Avalon at Westmoor, will observe Thanksgiving on Wednesday night at 7:45 p.m. with a service of worship. The theme for the Thanksgiving sermon is "Thanks-Living."

The churches of Daly City are welcoming all the people of the community to join with them at any or all of the above services.

B'moor Presbyterian sermon topics named

Sermon topics are announced Presbyterian Church, 377 - 87th for services at the Broadmoor Street, Daly City, by the pastor, Rev. Herbert Tweedie. The topic at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. worship services of this Sunday, November 24, is "Christ Offers Life Hereafter."

Communion will be observed this Sunday.

The following Sunday, December 1, the sermon is this: "Christ is Relevant to Life Today." The Youth Choir.

The annual Thanksgiving Eve Service is to held next Wednesday, November 27, at 8 p.m. with the topic being "Reasons for Thankfulness." The Adult Choir will sing "Thanks Be to God" as directed by Mr. Delmar Severy. The Adult Choir sings at 11:00 Sunday services with the Junior Choir singing "Holy Spirit, Hear Us" at 9:30 this Sunday and the Youth Choir singing the following Sunday. The Cherub Choir led by Mrs. Dorothy Spratt sang this past Sunday. Children, youth and adults are invited to try out for a choir. Everyone not already attending a church is invited to these worship services.

GOLD WREATHS and gold pine cone door decorations are hand made items to be sold at the Mater Dolorosa Women's Club Xmas Bazaar to be held November 23rd at the Church Hall, Forestview and Miller Avenues in So. San Francisco.

Mater Dolorosa plans Yule bazaar Nov. 23

Santa's helpers will all be at the Mater Dolorosa Women's Club Christmas Bazaar to be held on Saturday, Nov. 23, at the Church Hall. They will be able to purchase all sorts of gifts, stocking fillers, and decorations.

Circles, Altar Society, and Teen club have joined to make beautiful articles to be sold at inviting prices. Included will be Barbie Doll clothes, Christmas decorations, earrings, piggy banks, candy, and many other items. A caricature artist will be on hand to sketch "the real you" or your children.

Chairman Mrs. John Artim, 616 Serra Drive, South San Francisco, reminds everyone that this is a good opportunity to buy Christmas cards and other items you may have been procrastinating about getting. Doors open at 2 p.m. and close at 9 p.m., and the Teen Club is serving refreshments.

Food for Thought

A weekly column under the auspices of the Daly City Ministerial Association

There has been much commotion in the news concerning Bible reading and the saying of prayers in the public schools of the United States

The Supreme Court, on June 25, 1962, ruled that the daily recital of an official State prayer of a general nature in public schools, even though non-compulsory, was unconstitutional.

As a result many states and school districts have ruled out any prayer or Bible readings. But the cohrt has not specifically ruled against the use of unofficial prayers or, if correct, on unofficial readings from the Bible.

Many school districts and states continue these practices. Some of our state officials are quoted as in favor of allowing such practices as in keeping with the cultural heritage of our country which is also a nation "under God."

But the thought which is before us is this: Let us not presume to leave the moral and spiritual education to the public schools alone. This training is the responsibility of the homes and parents with their own religious belief and practice.

The danger is that parents get so used to leaving education in the A B C's to the schools tha tthey assume that moral and spiritual education and guidance will also automatically follow.

Naturally, the schools have to deal with discipline problems involving morals, but this is to assist the home. Schools are almost powerless without home responsibility and teaching in this area.

The American public is too prone to "let George do it." If so, the individual responsibility and integrity inherent in freedom will collapse. First our families and individuals collapse to the detriment of all concerned. Then our nation as a free society will tumble, resulting in the government or a tyranny forcing each and all to conform in one way.

Rev. Herbert Tweedie
Broadmoor
Presbyterian Church

Let each person and family conduct prayers and Bible reading in the home. Let there be this devotional time each day. Let there be prayers for divine blessing and guidance at meals. Let there be discussions of moral rightness based upon God's truth.

Let us return as adults, parents and children to worship together and teach at our churches which God began and sustains for our spiritual and moral enrichment.

Let us be a nation "under God." Let us not overlook these obvious means given to us for our salvation as persons, families, societies and a nation. Instead of "letting George do it," let each of us do it. Let us do it at home and do it in voluntary religious association at church.

Rev. Herbert C. Tweedie,
Broadmoor Presbyterian
Church

Rev. Tweedy guest speaker at B'nai Israel

Rev. Herbert C. Tweedy, minister of Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, will be guest speaker at this Friday evening service at Congregation B'nai Israel, 67 Los Banos Ave., Daly City.

Rec. Tweedy, who is president of the Ministerial Association of Broadmoor Village, of which Rabbi Shore is vice president, is appearing at this time as a tribute to the Rabbi and the congregation, which must abandon its spiritual home at the end of November.

The Sisterhood will hold its regular membership meeting at 8 p.m., Monday evening, Nov. 25, at the home of Mrs. George Ehrlich, 490 Northhaven Dr., Daly City.

Sister Mary Helen M. Dolorosa speaker

Sister Mary Helen, H.H.S., will be the speaker for the evening at the Mater Dolorosa Women's Club tonight, Nov. 20, at 8 p.m. at the Church Hall.

Sister Helen is principl of the M.D. School of Religion, but tonight she will be speaking about devotion to the Holy Souls and the work that her Order does to spread this devotion.

Many Thanksgiving services in Daly City

Sunday, November 24, will mark the beginning of the 15th annual Catholic Bishop's Thanksgiving Clothing Collection. For one week—until Sunday, December 1—all Catholic Churches will receive donations of usable clothing, shoes and bedding.

This collection, traditionally at Thanksgiving time, is the nation-wide appeal for the homeless and ill-clothed in other lands. Catholic Relief Services — the overseas aid agency of the Bishops — maintains relief and welfare programs under American supervision in areas of distress in 47 countries of the globe. Every article donated is promptly sent overseas to those countries and areas where it is most needed. Distribution is made with regard to race, color or creed.

Father Timothy E. O'Brien, Assistant Director of Catholic Charities and Archdiocesan Director of the Thanksgiving Clothing campaign stressed that the greatest need is for men's clothing, children's clothing—particularly infants garments — bolt goods, remnants, sewing material, blankets, quilts and coverlets.

Beginning on Nov. 24 donations can be brought to any Catholic church. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, through its San Francisco Headquarters, is then responsible for sorting and shipping donations from a dozen Western States.

Last year the counties of San Francisco, Marin, San Mateo and Santa Clara gave over 236,000 pounds of goods.

Westlake Baptist plans Yule concert

Ronald Foreman, Director of Music for the Westlake Community Baptist Church, is planning to present the John Peterson Cantata, "Night of Miracles," for the annual Christmas Concert.

This is a story of the first Christmas and its miracles. It is related in soaring and beautifully moving melodies designed for either small or large choirs. The Pacifica Baptist Church will join with the Westlake Community Baptist Church choir in the Christmas Concert which will be held in Pacifica and again in Daly City.

Mr. Foreman is also working with youth groups and he feels that young aspiring singers, or anyone interested in singing, would receive great pleasure and invaluable training by lending their voice in this presentation.

Church affiliation is not a requisite and anyone interested is urged to contact Mr. Foreman at the Westlake Community Baptist Church at Southgate and Elmwood, on Thursday evenings at 8 p.m. for rehearsals and tryouts.

St. Paul's church news

Beat El Camino 13-6

RAMS NPL Champs

The Westmoor Rams made it two Northern Peninsula League titles in a row Friday when they took a critical game away from now third place El Camino 13-6.

A win last week would have thrown the NPL into a three-way-tie for the number one spot with Westmoor, South San Francisco, and El Camino.

All three teams would have ended it up 4 wins and one loss.

But, they didn't.

Westmoor ended the season with a 5-0 mark in league competition and an 8-1 season score.

Westmoor lost to Riordan High School in a pre-season game Sept. 27 by 7-26.

Notwithstanding the Riordan loss, Westmoor is rated as one of the outstanding football squads in Northern California.

Statistically

Statistically, El Camino gained more Friday than they lost to the Rams.

The only thing they lost was the game.

El Camino toted up 13 first downs of which 12 were earned against eight for Westmoor of which 7 were earned.

Of these, the Colts rushed 11 to the Rams' 6.

El Comino gained 204 yards rushing to 125 for Westmoor and edged the Rams by five yards through the air with a 22 to 17 total.

All in first half

In spite of the confident pregame predictions of the Colts' head coach, Bob Sexton (who expected to give Pete Matisi's Rams a tough—and losing, battle), the Westmoor squad rammed their woy to the two winning touchdowns and the one Dave Mahoney PAT in the first half.

The startling McHale kickoff TD return in the opening seconds of the game almost set the pace for the Rams for the rest of the game.

But, they failed to show the zip of their previous game against South San Francisco.

(The South San Francisco game was picked by Matisi and his staff as the most crucial of the season before the NPL opened).

Spectacular

Paul McHale, a slight (145 pounds, 5-foot, nine-inches), wiry and speedy Ram halfback, jolted the spectators and the Colts with an 88-yard kickoff return within the first 20 seconds that went all the way.

He was assisted in this endeavor by the key blocking of Ron Baker, Van Tassle and Flip Reade.

Mahoney took the PAT over.

Fullback Dave Mahoney went over the flags a second time in the number two segment when he made Westmoor's second TD from the three yard line.

A pass from quarterback Bruce Hix to Mike Morrison failed for the second Westmoor PAT.

Rams on the defense

A determined Ram defense held the El Camino both scoreless and in their own territory during the first half.

The deepest Colt penetration came in the second quarter with a poss to Ron Reinig, No. 44, who gathered in a pass on the Ram 14-yard line.

The Colts couldn't capitalize on the advance.

Their best showing previously sent them only to the Westmoor 25 during the first quarter.

Colt bid

The Colts made a resolute attempt to uphold Coach Sexton's hopes for a win with a drive in the third quarter.

A three-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Mike Tyler to halfback Ron Reinig did the trick and put El Camino in a comeback spot with the Rams leading by only one TD and a PAT.

Their PAT try — a Mike Tyler run—was stopped by a strong Ram line.

Colt disaster

El Camino showed they were out for the win in the final quarter of the game with a going march that ended on the Rams two-yard line.

An attempt to take the ball across met with disaster when an El Camino ball-carrier let it go.

And with the ball went the Colts' hopes.

There were still three minutes left to play.

Hix's last

The El Camino-Westmoor game marked the final appearance of senior Bruce Hix for the Rams.

With Hix goes some of the most brilliant high school ball handling the North Peninsula League has seen in years.

Hix has been acclaimed over and over again for his play-calling, handling of his team, speed and control, coolness, running and above all else, perhaps, his ability to pass.

SSF wins Terra Nova rout 41-21

The winless Terra Nova Tigers were badly mauled Friday by Ray De Jong's South San Francisco Warriors 41-21.

The win for the Warriors gave them a second place in the NPL.

A rushing rout of 289 yards gave the Warriors their seven touchdowns.

Ten times at ball-carrying gave South City's fullback Greg Jones a chance to go 57 yards alone . . . and the 57 yards counted.

He was topped on the ground by the performance of halfback Dan Crowe who took the ball five times but went 68 yards.

Jones completed the Warriors opening drive before the first quarter was barely started with a one-yard dash from tackle for the first of the seven scores.

Sam Pretari made the PAT for the South City squad with the first of his five boots of the game.

Jones kept up his opening promise with a second TD minutes later on a 16-yard go off tackle.

Then it was Jones again for the third score in the second quarter with a five yard romp.

Halfback Dan Crowe kept up the Tiger slaughter with only a minute gone since the last Jones romp.

He too off on another 33-yard sprint for the fourth crossing of the Terra Nova goal-line.

Halfback Tony Mateo accounted for another South City change of score before the first half ended.

Wingback Mark Howard completed the 35-0 first half massacre when he went 65 yards to do it again.

Late Start

Terra Nova failed to get on the score board until the third quarter.

Fullback Larry Jenkins kept the Tigers from complete disaster with a push over the line from the Warrior one-yard marker.

Coil came back to perform some more when he hit Mike Blagrove with a seven-yard aerial for the second Tiger TD.

The event occured in the fourth quarter.

Coil's best moment came from a 44-yard throw to end Ron Coleman for the last Tiger touchdown.

Coil completed the day with the PAT run.

STAMPEDE—A bunch of light-suited Colts go after Ram quarterback Bruce Hix carrying the ball for seven yards against El Camino Friday. Hix made the yardage on a left-end run and was brought to earth by El Camino's quarterback Mike Tyler, No. 10. Lasota, No. 22; Tressitte, No. 64; and Lanaers, No. 74 were in on the play for El Camino. This was the last NPL prep school game for Westmoor senior Hix. Westmoor won 13-6.

Indian S-F win over Oceana

The Jefferson Frosh-Soph football team won a stormy and muddy game over Oceana Thursday.

The score, 13-2.

Jeff scored first blood in the opening period with a pass from Waller to Shelver.

Edwards made the PAT on run around end.

Jeff's final score was made in the second period when the combination of Waller and Shelver got together again for the TD pass.

Oceana's defense tightened in the second period to yield nothing to the Indians after the whistle.

A blocked punt recovered by Jeff in their own end zone produced the only two points gained by the visitors.

For a last game, "They played their hearts out," said Jeff's Frosh Soph Coach Boyd.

Boyd named Banos, Garcia and Bowen as most valuable on defense.

Jeff ended up with a fourth place behind League Champion El Camino, Westmoor and South City.

Boyd credited the team with winning the games they should have.

TRIUMPHAL MARCH—Westmoor Rams' Coach Pete Matisi is carried happily from a field of victory after Westmoor defeated the El Camino Colts 13-6 Friday. Ramsmen Walter, No. 66, and Reade, No. 61, shoulder Matisi with Dan Hartman, the Rams' burley 210-pound tackle, No. 73, giving the assist with a hand behind Matisi's back. Westmoor swept away all comers in the NPL to take the league championship with five wins and no losses.

Bobbie Nolan Bears big man

Bobbie Nolan was the big man for the PAL Bears as they displayed the awesome power that has given them a perfect record this season. The OLPH Steamrollers were their victim this time, in a 34-6 win.

OLPH scored on a great 50 yard pass play from Hall to Ramos, but they could only work the trick once. Nolan started Bear scoring by hitting Ron Caserza with a 40 yard TD bomb. Next, he zeroed in on Caserza for a 30 yard TD pass.

This was followed by another 40 yard strike to Caserza. Matty Russo then moved into the spotlight with an interception and a 5 yard TD run. Not satisfied with this, Russo picked off another one, and went 50 yards for the score. Nolan accounted for three PAT's, with passes to Allen. Olcese and Phil Chirverilera.

He also ran one in. Bill Basnett and Dennis Smith were outstanding for the Bears while Martin and Lefrano were singled out for the Seamrollers.

Ben Franklin soccer league to be formed

On Saturday, Nov. 23 at the Benjamin Franklin school a soccer league will be formed and will last for the next 5 week-ends. After last Saterdays Soccer Clinic which was veery successful many boys are eager to get into league play. The leagues will be played on the school fields and will run from approximately 10:30-11:30 a.m. Any boys interested in participating can report to the field next Saturday when teams will be organized. We would like to thank Al Bettucchi, S.S.F. High School Coach and Ernie Feibuschc former Olympic Team soccer player for their leadership in making this another successful soccer clinic.

The B. F. school soccer teams go into action this week with the eighth grade playing Alta Loma at Ben. Franklin on Thursday and the seventh grade traveling to Alta Loma on Wednesday for their first league encounters.

Jeff ends season with Oceana win

Joe McGrath's Jefferson Indians ended their 1963 season, not with a whimper, but with a bang Friday.

The Indians defeated the Oceana Sharks by a decisive 12-0.

The passing combination of quarterback Don Fisicaro to end Ed Larios paid off for 154 yards and the two Indian TD's.

The Indian victory came in the first half.

A 99-yard touchdown march in the first quarter—a comeback from an Oceana threat on the one-yard line that ended on downs—topped off with a 26-yard pass from the deadly duo, gave the Indians their first scalp.

The second quarter repeat—a 15-yard pass from Fisicaro to Larios—gave Jefferson the game.

Jefferson coupled the passing attack of Fisicaro and Larios with some fine defense throughout the game and in the second half to hold the Sharks scoreless.

Hix, Baker named for Warrior game

Westmoor's remarkable quarterback Bruce Hix and intrepid halfback Ron Baker were named the Rams' most valuable and outstanding players in Westmoor's most crucial 1963 Northern Peninsula League game.

Hix and Baker were awarded commemorative footballs in recognition of their outstanding performance against South San Francisco in the grid battle of Nov. 7.

The presentation was made by head Ram Coach Pete Matisi at a Westmoor rally preceding the El Camino game Friday.

Hix

Hix was cited for a performance which included completing 11 passes out of 16 tries for a total gain of 209 yards.

He was credited for two touchdown runs and two touchdown passes.

The final score for the game was Rams, 26; Warriors, 19.

Hix made the first touchdown on a 15-yard run.

The second touchdown came on an eight-yard pass from Hix to Marc Mallinger.

The third was from a four-yard Hix run.

The fourth came from another eight-yard Hix pass to Bill Price.

Baker

Ron Baker was picked for his excellence on offense as well as an outstanding performance on defense.

He was cited for two passes caught which totaled 35 yards and for running which accounted for 52 yards gained in seven ball-carrying times.

Defensively, Baker is credited for making 18 unassisted tackles during the game.

Leaders

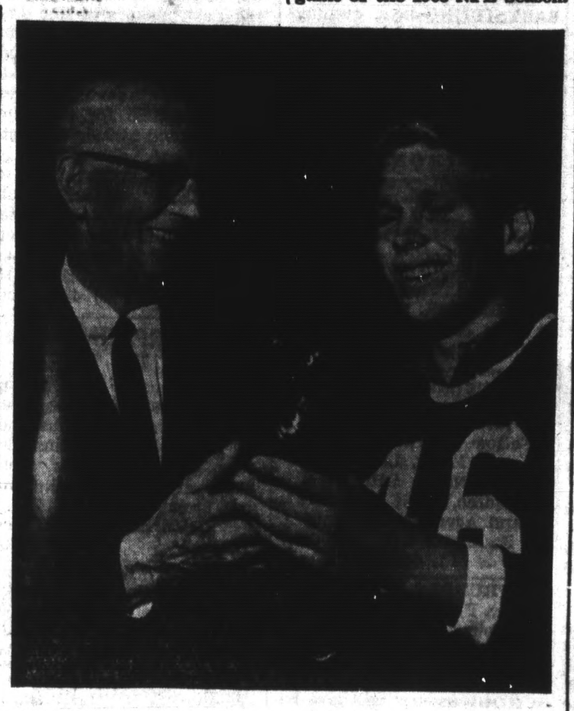
Both Hix and Baker were awarded for outstanding leadership and sportsmanship.

Annual Event

The green football award is to become an annual event at Westmoor.

Coach Matisi and his staff will choose the top performers from a designated game picked at the start of the season.

SERIOUS MOMENT — Bruce Hix, wearing jersey No. 15, and teammate Ron Baker, No. 26, talk with head football coach Pete Matisi on the steps of Westmoor High School after being awarded green footballs for being the outstanding players in Westmoor's most crucial game. Westmoor football coaches picked the South San Francisco game played Nov. 8 as their most important game of the 1963 NPL season.



DAVE MAHONEY, Westmoor High School fullback, smiles as he accepts the "TV Prep Player of the Week" award from Joe Rohl, Daly City manager for Pacific Gas and Electric Company. The presentation was made Friday at a special Westmoor assembly. Mahoney, a senior, was cited for his outstanding performance in Westmoor's 35-6 victory over Jefferson High. PG&E sponsors KGO-TV's high school game of the week.

Winter speedway program

The racing program last weekend at Jim McLennan's Champion Speedway marked the opening of the winter season of racing here.

With most tracks going dark around the country, McLennan is planning at least two races a week with some special events for future Sundays.

Although no specific dates have been set, Champion will host late model Stockers, midgets and Destruction Derbies in the not too distant future. Definitely slated for the first Sunday of every month are the Indianapolis-type sprint cars with the initial show set for December 1st.

Future events to be held at the speedway include:

Nov. 22, motorcycles; Nov. 30 NASCAR claimer hardtops; Nov. 24, destruction derby; Nov. 29, motorcycles; Nov. 30 NASCAR claimer hardtops and Dec. 1, sprint cars.

Champion Speedway can be reached by traveling on Bayshore Freeway either North or south.

First place PAL Eagles topple Jets

Soaring above the league teams, the PAL Eagles moved higher in the standings this week by toppling the PAL Jets. Ross Dove put on a one-man defensive show for the Jets, but the powerful Eagles still went on to win. Dove stopped the Eagles' passing attack and they had to turn to their defensive team for their first score. Larry Belfrage intercepted a Jet pass, and ran 10 yards for the score. Later in the game Belfrage ran three yards for the second TD. Fred Balleto scored the PAT. The final score, 13-0 in favor of the Eagles was a real tribute to Ross Dove. If he can get some help from his defensive team, the Jets might spend more time in the win column. Gary St. Clair was one reason the Jets did not get into the scoring column. He had some help from the marvelous monsters Berger Fitzgerald & Co.

In another defensive battle the OLPH Gold fought it out with the Holy Angels' Colts. Neither team could generate a good offensive effort. The Colts caught the Golds in their own end zone for two points through the efforts of Mark Hamilton, but Jack Kearney of the Golds picked off a Colt aerial and flashed 60 yards for 6 points. Rog DiVirgilio, Ben Chavez and Mike Bender kept the Colts on the run and off balance. Final—ALPH Gold 6, Holy Angels' Colts 2.

DC man in hole-in-one sweepstake

Like a lot of things in life, there's a bit of luck connected with a hole-in-one.

With a little bit of that "hole-in-one" luck, a Daly City golfer may win a trip to Scotland for two and $1,000.

Norm Bamfield of 162 W. Moltke St., Daly City, plunked a ball in a cup recently at the Sharp Park Golf Course.

The ace entitles him to enter the Old Smuggler Hole-in-One Sweepstakes.

The winner will be announced in January.

Lots o' luck, Norm, say his friends.

Colma faculty downs Vikings

The Colma Intermediate School Faculty met and defeated the Champions from the Colma School Recreational League in a touch football contest.

League champions, the Vikings, led by captain Barry Perrone, got off to a bad start when Mr. Curliss intercepted a Perrone pass and galloped for the first score.

Fighting back, the Vikings trapped Mr. Mannini in the end zone for a two-point Safety. The faculty team took revenge by pulling the same trick on the Vikings, catching captain Perrone in the end zone for two points, putting them out in front.

Mr. Mannini chalked up the next score when he passed to Mr. Kashewagi for a TD. Coming back, the Vikings struck through the air. Louis Matteuci made a great catch for the only Viking TD.

CSM vs Oakland Saturday

Playing their last game of the season, the College of San Mateo Bulldogs seek a first division spot in final Golden Gate conference standings Saturday afternoon at the expense of Oakland City College at San Mateo High School. Kickoff is at 1:30.

As a special "students' day" feature, all high school student body card holders will be admitted free to the contest.

The Bulldogs pulled off a hair-raising 20-14 victory over visiting San Jose City College last week to break a four-game losing streak. The win gave San Mateo a 2-4 league record and a 3-5 over-all mark.

Bad luck for CSM, runs 2nd

A highly successful cross country season ended on a somber note for College of San Mateo.

The Bulldogs, who won everything in sight this fall, found mud and a leg injury to star runner Ralph Likens too much to overcome in the Northern California Junior College meet at Fresno on Nov. 15.

CSM settled for second place behind Golden Gate conference foe San Jose City College.

CSM had soundly defeated SJCC in their three previous meetings this year—for the GGC four-mile team race trophy, for the conference dual meet title, and in the GGC finals.

Likens, adjudged the top runner in the Golden Gate conference this season, was bothered by a leg injury that kept him out of the league finals a week earlier.

He did no better han a determined 54th in the field of more than a hundred runners.

Mud more than a foot thick in places on the Lake Merced course completely upset the dope sheet as the second man on many of the 15 competing teams upset the first man.

CSM was led by 1962 GGC champion Jim Huff who managed seventh place, although running on a sprained ankle, while Tony Casillas took 13th, Leroy Peterson (from Terra Nova High) 16th, Clint Miller (Terra Nova) 18th, Frank Procella (San Mateo High) 30th, and Steve Fanucchi (Terra Nova) 46th.

The Bulldogs got some consolation the following morning as a "reserve" team swept the team title in the San Francisco State Invitational.

CSM totaled a low of 23 points as Ray Fragulia (Serra) took eighth and Mark Clark (Westmoor) took ninth, running in his tennis outfit while on his "coffee break" from his nearby recreation job. Twelfth place Rich Hayworth (Terra Nova) displaced the fifth College of Marin runner as the Tars hit 43 points for second place and Compton College from Southern California was third with 68.

Although cross country season is officially over, the Bulldogs will run against Foothill Friday afternoon in a special four-mile relay at Stanford's Angell field.

Jim McGill wins honors

Jim McGill of the PAL Pirates won "hero of the week" honors by intercepting a pass last Saturday. This pass was important, was thrown during a sudden death overtime following the Pirate's game with the OLPH Bugs.

The interception made the difference that gave the Pirates the 1-0 win over the Bugs. Needing the win to stay in the running, the Bugs put up a tremendous effort.

One-man show at Serra Bowl

Ted Christensen, an award winning artist, has opened a month-long one-man show in the Friar Room Lounge of the Serra Bowl.

Christensen has had many one-man shows on the West Coast and has been represented in numerous private collections throughout the country.

Among his awards are honors by the Oregon Society of Artists, the Marin Society of Artsists and the Jack London Art Show.

Set new classes at rifleranae

The County Rifle Range located at Coyote Point has gone on a winter schedule effective immediately.

This will change the operating days and hours as follows:

Monday and Tuesday: Closed to public.

Open to public on the following schedule: Wednesday and Thursday—1 to 7 p.m.; Friday—1 to 9 p.m.; and Saturday and Sunday—10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Peace officers and NRA affiliated clubs will continue to fire as scheduled.

Roofing Cats in the lead with 5 wins

Bob Abbott's Bender Roofing Cats came up this week with an unblemished record, 5 wins, and no losses. This puts them in the lead for the championship. Joel "The Arm" Carrara put the Cats on the scoreboard four times in their game against the Holy Angels Titans this week. First, he threw two touchdown bombs to Don Gitchel, next he chose David Belli for his touchdown target, and finally—as if to show he can run—he picked up an onsides kick and ranfor the final TD. Abbott and Blackfield added two points to the score when they put on the blitz and caught the Titans in their own end zone.

Tom Neary put his name down in OLPH history this week. Neary gained over 200 yards in his team's game against the PAL Braves. John McGlung opened the gate for Neary with a crushing block that sprang Neary for a 65-yard TD right up the middle. He also scored on a 6-yard run and a 20-yard TD run. Schwitzer and Perkon helped the course of the Wildcats with some real hard-nosed football. Gugliemoni added to the total score, that of a PAT pass. Final OLPH Wildcats 19, PAL Braves 0. Joe March and Bill Brown did what they could but the Wildcats could not be denied.

LEAGUE STANDINGS

It's SPARE TIME

at the Westlake Bowl

By Jim Grealish

Westlake Bowlers will soon have an opportunity to compete for a 1964 MG Four Door Sport Sedan which will be first prize in the News Call Bulletin Christmas Classic Singles.

Kicking off on Thanksgiving Day, the qualifying round will run until 10 p.m. Dec. 15. This year's Tournament will have a new format ending with the Grand Finals Jan. 11 and 12.

Doris Cunningham took high game honors with 189 and Angie Cestone won the high series title with 513 in the A-1 Nursery Invitational League last week. Split converters were Betty Crowley 6-7, Iris Nolli 5-7, Doris Cunningham 5-10, Lora Parker 5-8-10 and Billie Buchanan 5-7 and 6-10.

Ten 600 series were registered in the 920 All-Stars last week led by Bill Greer with 234 and 650. Other high rollers were Suds Bier 247-649, Mark Gonzales 267-643 and John Mattson 215-635.

Julie Kenyon with 176-519 and Wally Keany with 219-605 were the top bowlers in the 99'ers Mixed Fives for the week.

Claude Attel rolled a 220 game and 613 series to lead the 839 Scratch League followed by Steve Gotelli with 223-607. Al Stagnaro won a triplicate patch as he rolled three 145 games.

Ladies of the area will have an opportunity to learn to bowl as Frank McCarthy has started an instruction class on Monday afternoons at 1:30 p.m.

The Thursday Afternoon Tea Timers League found Fran Tischbern shooting 188 and Rose Marie Owens rolling 520 to take top honors.

Peggy Narducci and Doug Manuel were the leaders in the Ball and Chain Mixed Fives as Doug rolled a great 245 game and 554 series and Peggy shot 171 and 457.

Westlake Knolls bowler of the week was Milt Gerson who bowled a 206 game and 542 series.

Westlake Bowl's Tee Rolling "took home all the marbles" as she placed first in the Northern California BPAA Ladies' All-Star Eliminations with a tremendous average of 190 for forty games.

By placing first, Tee wins the right to represent this area in the National Championship next January in Dallas, Texas, where first prize is $5,000.00.

Progress was a most important word for May Morales in the Ladies' 810 Scratch League as she rolled 178-179-180 for a 537 stepladder series. Norma Baldelli took top honors in the League with a 215 game and 583 series.

The "Q" Room is the latest addition to Westlake as twelve Brunswick Gold Crown billiard tables now grace the interior of the Bowl to add to the complete recreation service being offered to Daly City area residents.

The Weekend Handicap Sweeper is the latest attraction being offered to Westlake bowlers. Running from midnight Friday to midnight Sunday, bowlers may compete anytime for the $100.00 guaranteed first prize and other cash prizes.

Clo Johnson with a 185 game and Terry Warde with a 469 series were the week's leaders in the St. Emydius Mothers' Guild League. Split converters were Lorraine Rinaldi 5-10, Lucy Good 5-10, L. Torres 2-7, Edna Lauro 5-8-10 and Beryl McGrath 5-8-10.

Our Junior 900 Scratch team continue to lead the Bay Area Junior Masters League. Next Sunday at 6 p.m. they invade Oakland's Broadway Bowl to take on the Brentwood Bowl team.

ORDINANCE NO. 588

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF DALY CITY ANNEXING CERTAIN UNINHABITED CONTIGUOUS TERRITORY TO THE CITY OF DALY CITY, WHICH SAID TERRITORY IS KNOWN AND DESIGNATED AS THE CHRISTEN RANCH TERRITORY.

The City Council of the City of Daly City does ordain as follows:

1. Heretofore, pursuant to petition appropriately filed and after report of the Boundary Commission of the County of San Mateo approving the boundaries of the territory hereinafter described as to definiteness and certainty, the City Council of the City of Daly City instituted proceedings under the Annexation of Uninhabited Territory Act of 1939 (Section 35,000 and following of the Government Code of the State of California).

2. Pursuant to such Act, a resolution was adopted on Monday, August 26, 1963, by the City Council of the City of Daly City designating such annexation proceedings as the CHRISTEN RANCH TERRITORY ANNEXATION and setting the time and place of hearing protests against the annexation for 8:00 o'clock P.M., October 14, 1963, in the City Council Chambers, City Hall, Daly City, California. Said resolution further described the boundaries of the territory specifically.

3. Said resolution was duly and regularly published in its entirety once a week for two successive weeks in The Record, a newspaper of general circulation published in The City of Daly City, and in The San Mateo Times, a newspaper of general circulation published outside the City of Daly City but in the County of San Mateo.

4. At the hearing on October 14, 1963 aforementioned, the City Council of the City of Daly City heard and passed upon all protests, and at the aforementioned hearing duly and regularly adopted a resolution on October 14, 1963 finding and declaring that no majority protest had been made at the aforementioned hearing.

5. Said territory is uninhabited within the meaning of the Annexation of Uninhabited Territory Act aforementioned.

6. The City Council of the City of Daly City does hereby annex to the City of Daly City the uninhabited contiguous property more particularly described hereinafter.

7. Said property hereinafter described shall be and is hereby made liable and encumbered with all existing bonded indebtedness of the City of Daly City.

8. This ordinance shall be published once in The Record, a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Daly City.

9. The City Clerk shall, when this ordinance becomes effective, immediately prepare under seal a certified copy of this ordinance giving the date of its passage and transmit the same to the Secretary of State of the State of California and shall take other steps as may be necessary by law for the completion of these proceedings.

10. Said territory hereby annexed to the City of Daly City and contiguous thereto is described in the attached Exhibit A, which by this reference is incorporated in this paragraph the same as though set forth herein.

Olympia kindergarten harvest time studies

The Kindergarten classes taught by Mrs. E. Hammond, at Olympia School, are finding out many things about harvest time. Through discussions, flannel board stories, songs and dramatizations the children have learned how apple trees grow and how the apple farmer cares for his trees until the apples are ripe and sent by train and truck to the store where mother buys them. Number concepts are being learned through games appropriate to the Thanksgiving season. On Wednesday the children enjoyed the filmstrip story of "How Apples Grow" as a culminating activity.

At a party celebrating November birthdays eight five-year-olds were greeted with Birthday Wishes: Lori Green, Richard Dwyer, Dale Rubinchik, MaryAnn Follan, Pamela Snell, James Matteucci, Jeffrey Billeb and David Bastida. Kindergarten mothers who planned and served delicious cookies and ice cream were Mrs. Henry Rubinchik, Mrs. Richard Dwyer and Mrs. Norman Green.

During the next six weeks, Miss Marguerite Davi, a student at San Francisco State College, who is completing her teacher training, will be welcomed as a student teacher working with Mrs. Hammond at Olympia Kindergarten.

Dog patrol unit works out for D.C. Rotary

Members of the Dog Patrol Unit of the San Francisco Police Department staged a demonstration last Wednesday before the Daly City Rotary Club.

The Dog Patrol, which was begun in San Francisco in October of 1962, now consists of eight officer and dog teams, which work in pairs. The animals live with the officers and their families, and are much-loved members of the households. They are trained by a former Germany army dog trainer.

The demonstration which took place following the officers' remarks proved the excellence of the dogs' obedience training. The officers donned specially-padded jackets, and had the dogs attack them.

The animals are trained to react to commands given in German, so that no command in English slips out inadvertently.
